

Auto dealers fight city sales tax

Organized opposition on behalf of the auto dealers of Granite City to the one percent sales tax adopted by the city council last week has been pledged by Bill Woodrone, president of Woodrone Oldsmobile, who predicted the new tax will be challenged in court, unless the city modifies it.

"It's a killer in its present form to the automobile sales industry. Anyone selling a major ticket item, such as a car, has got to move out of the city," Woodrone contended.

"I am not sure the proceedings (by the council) were proper and not sure that the tax is legal. I don't want to do this. I want the city to have enough money, without killing the business in Granite, but I don't think they have given us a chance. There will be a two percent increase over the one percent in Missouri; this is a killer," Woodrone commented.

"I feel the city license department, when people get their city stickers, could collect that tax and it would be fair for all. That way, whether they buy the car out of town or in town, they pay the same tax. The city also could limit the tax to, say, $5, which is one percent of the first $500 of the cost of a car."

"This is detrimental, period, for the whole downtown business district. It is a long-term thing that will gradually deteriorate the merchants' position in the city. Some businesses are already considering moving out because of the existing city tax. This would be a 200 percent increase over the one percent the state now collects for the city."

"We need to get people to put pressure on the aldermen to repeal this tax, at least in its present form," Woodrone contended.

Responding to charges by some aldermen that he made plans to move to Pontoon Beach before the tax was even considered, Woodrone said that is false. "I have a five-year contract here and plan to stay here. That is the maximum contract you can get anywhere in the country on a GM franchise," he noted.

He added, "I am convinced the city needs money, and I want the city to continue to provide services, but it would not hurt the car dealers if the city would collect the tax at the time persons purchase their city sticker," he concluded.

Woodrone also addressed the city council last week, before the one percent sales tax was approved. He commented at that time, "I don't think people are going to spend an extra $100 to $150 a car to buy from Bill Woodrone and how many industries do you think would be willing to pay another $150 to $200?"

He noted the current one percent tax

Overfest '81 program will run 3 days, open overpass

A gala festival around the theme, "Overfest '81, Bridging the Gap," is being planned to officially open the new 19th Street overpass between West Granite City and the downtown area.

Committees are actively involved in making the final preparations for the event, which is to be held Oct. 16 through the east end of the new overpass structure.

A carnival, a soap box derby, hot air balloons, booths, ethnic and American foods, a picnic and other events are being planned.

A tentative schedule of events for the festival has been approved by the committee chairmen and was announced Saturday by the general chairman, David Nolan.

The focal point of the festival is 19th Street and Niedringhaus Avenue, with other activities throughout the downtown area. Activities also, will take place on the overpass and in and around Civic Park, which is surrounded by Delmar and Niedringhaus avenues and 20th Street.

The festival will officially open at 6 p.m. Friday, Oct. 16, with a carnival and first soap box derby. The city has held in many years. The soap box derby, which will be down the eastern leg of the overpass, is open to boys and girls. Those wishing to participate may obtain copies of the specifications for the cars and the rules at the office of the city traffic engineer, Ed Schulte, in the township building at 21st Street and Delmar Avenue, or in Nolan's office on the top floor of city hall.

Six youths already have entered the derby and are busy building their streamlined cars for the event. Nolan said he hopes many more Granite City youths will enter, noting that the cars do not have to be fancy, or expensive.

Practice heats will resume at 1 p.m. for one hour before the final elimination heats begin at 2:30 p.m. that Saturday. The scheduling of the finals will depend on the number of entries and will be announced later.

The carnival will be open that Saturday with a specially-priced matinee for children between noon and 4 p.m. and will reopen with normal prices from 6 p.m. to midnight, along with booths and activities. Rich Tinsley, who has organized the carnivals for the Strassfest, as well as Granite City's Diamond Jubilee, will provide the carnival rides for the three-day festival.

Sunday, Oct. 18, will be the big day, beginning at noon with a public picnic in Civic Park. Picnic tables will be provided and booths on the Delmar side

City to hire public accountant

Advertisements for a full-time certified public accountant for Granite City resulted in approximately 20 candidates applying, of which five meet the city's specifications, Alderman Paul Ray Bowler, chairman of the city council's finance committee, has reported to the council.

He said he will be setting up interviews soon with those who qualify and hopes the committee can have a recommendation in the near future.

The city council decided last month that a full-time CPA is needed to help straighten out the city's current financial chaos. Bowler said that his discovery Monday that the city had not been paying into the workmen's compensation insurance fund was one example of why a CPA is needed to keep aldermen informed of the current status of each city account.

With the imposition of a one percent city sales tax, approved last week, complete financial statements on the condition of each account may help the aldermen decide where the additional money the tax will produce is most urgently needed, he noted.

Mayor Paul Schuler said the overall condition of the city should be known by mid-October when the outside auditing firm hired to audit the city's financial records completes its report.

"They did have a lot of problems in addition to putting things together from scratch," Schuler noted, saying that the auditor had discovered transfers of funds without the necessary transfer ordinances being approved by the council and has had difficulty determining from which fund each transfer was made.

Alderman Paul Fisk of the Third Ward asked Schuler, "Will there be a statement coming from your office how it happened—how we got in the mess we're in, and how the council did not know what shape we were in? We look like fools up here."

Schuler explained, "There will be an explanation from the auditor how it happened."

Streamlined county agencies sought

By BILL WINTER of the Press-Record

How to fit the Madison County government into its building space and into its pocketbook? Those questions have prompted studies which are nearing completion early this fall.

Slimmer, more streamlined county agencies and procedures are being sought. Fewer one-person and two-person departments are desired, with mergers perhaps enabling better use of telephones, office space, supervisory and secretarial personnel, and office equipment.

Specific departmental consolidations are awaiting the completion of a detailed space analysis study.

The latter study is taking stock of all room within the County Courthouse and the former bank building across the street from and north of the courthouse, plus other present and potential office space.

A lawsuit by Circuit Clerk Willard V. Portell tells of cramped and hazardous conditions and asks for a remedy. State laws appear to require counties to provide adequate room for courts and court-related services like those Portell provides.

If the county is unable or unwilling to offer more and better space, Portell has indicated he might consider moving one or more divisions of the Third Circuit clerical program.

One option he is considering is whether to seek to rent an unused school wing in Granite City.

The Madison County Board has not yet received consolidated recommendations from its Finance Committee. Similar proposals in past years have attracted only limited board

Venice school board votes to oust Mangiaracino; Fields gets vacancy

By VALERIE EVENED of the Press-Record

In a rare move to oust an elected public official, the Venice Board of Education adopted a resolution Thursday night calling for the removal of John Mangiaracino as a board member.

Also enacted were the appointment to the Venice School Board of Thomas Fields, 212 Abbott St., Venice, and the formal adoption of a $1,589,285 budget to operate the Venice Public Schools in 1981-82 and a $503,000 tax levy.

Fields, manager of the McKinley toll bridge, will complete the unexpired term of Larry D. Boyd.

Boyd resigned Aug. 24 upon moving to Champaign. His three-year term expires in November.

The resolution seeking to oust

Mangiaracino from the board petitions the county (regional) superintendent of schools to "exercise his power" to remove Mr. John Mangiaracino from the Venice Board of Education for his willful failure to perform his official duties.

The formal document notes that Mangiaracino was elected to the Venice Board of Education on April 12, 1980, and since that time has attended only five board meetings.

The last time he attended a meeting was on Sept. 8, 1980.

Members of the board have been unsuccessful in various attempts to resolve the attendance problem through conversation and correspondence with Mangiaracino, the resolution notes.

(It was noted in a previously published Press-Record article that notices of meetings, together with a copy of the board agenda, have been delivered personally to Mangiaracino's home prior to the meeting date by Superintendent of Schools Robert Williams or his secretary.)

The lack of attendance has placed a heavy burden on the remaining members of the board to, among other things, convene a quorum, conduct employee negotiations and to conduct other business of the district, the document states.

It also was noted the county (regional) superintendent of schools has the power, pursuant to the Illinois School Code, to remove any member of a school board from office for willful failure to perform his official duties.

The question of Mangiaracino's attendance has been quietly discussed on several occasions, but the topic surfaced as part of the board's official record at the June 8 meeting.

At that time, Mangiaracino's absence was questioned by the Rev. John Henry Williams, who also served the board as an interested citizen.

Rev. Williams queried the board whether or not it was true a member had not been to a meeting for six or seven months.

Venice Supt. of Schools Robert N. Vickers confirmed that Mangiaracino had not attended a meeting from Sept. 8, 1980.

To date, there have been 33 twice-monthly meetings of the board since Mangiaracino's election in April 1980. He is officially recorded as having attended only five.

It was noted that board members are elected by the people and apparently the board is unable to take action because of poor attendance by its members.

At that point, Board Attorney Michael Blumley was instructed to look into the problem and attempt to clarify

GC man struck by car, dies

Dennis L. Horton, 30, of 2515 Northbridge, was fatally injured when he was struck by a car as he walked on Route 111 south of Route 156 in Pontoon Beach at 9:47 p.m. Saturday.

The driver of the car, alleged to be Jack R. Miles, 32, Wood River, has been charged with leaving the scene of an accident. He surrendered to police after abandoning his auto in Maryville.

According to Pontoon Beach Chief of Police Roswell Bennett Jr., the Pontoon Beach officers had been called about 9:45 p.m. about a man walking in the roadway on Route 111 by the Spartan service station south of Route 156 and a squad car was dispatched.

Before the police car reached the scene, the dispatcher received another call that the pedestrian had been struck by a car which drove away. The officer dispatched to the scene found Mr. Horton without signs of life in the near future a patrolman Health Spa. He called for a coroner and Madison County Deputy Coroner Dick Mizell pronounced Mr. Horton dead at the scene at 10:15 p.m. Saturday.

An autopsy was conducted Sunday and indicated that Mr. Horton had been struck from behind and suffered massive internal injuries.

A witness to the accident said that Mr. Horton had been on the roadway

Opposition group at Madison to oppose city home rule

By MICK STRANGE of the Press-Record

The "Madison Concerned Citizens Against Home Rule" (MCCAIR), an organization formed in Madison which originally had six members at its first private committee meeting, and now has over 70 Madison residents, attended a committee meeting last week.

William Steiner, chairman of MCCAIR, said that the group plans in the near future a public "Hearings and Meeting" to inform the citizens of the "whole truth, and not just portions of the truth the city administration is telling," Steiner said.

There is a large number of citizens already alarmed and very concerned about the future of our city. Huge tax increases have already been put on us by the aldermen and city administration.

"We also became very alarmed in reading in the Press-Record a letter by

Lions gear up for Candy Day, Oct. 9

Last minute preparations for Lions Candy Day, Friday,
Oct. 9, are being made by the Madison Lions Club.

On that day, Lions Clubs all over Illinois, will give away candy and accept donations to raise $1.2
million to help the blind, visually handicapped, deaf,
and hearing impaired.

"Candy Day is more than candy," said Paul Ashford, club president. "It is a symbol of hope for the blind and deaf, and it is a sign of community involvement and humanitarian service on the part of each and every Lion in the state." There are 33,000 Lions in 678 clubs in Illinois.

Candy Day funds are used in the local community and also are channeled through the Lions of Illinois Foundation, 1515 N. Harlem Ave., Oak Park. The charitable arm of the state's Lions Clubs. The Foundation administers a variety of programs benefiting the blind and deaf statewide.

"Many people and businesses in the community have come forward to volunteer to participate in Candy Day, either by contributing the cost of a case of candy or by volunteering time on Candy Day," Donald L. Bridick, Candy Day
chairman for the local club, said.

"We are very grateful to these people and we want the community to know that there is still time to join us," Bridick said. "Just call me at 876-4300 and I'll put you to work."

Physicians must report all cases of Reye's Syndrome

Legislation requiring physicians to report incidents of Reye's Syndrome to the Illinois Department of Public Health has been signed by Governor James
R. Thompson.

"Reye's Syndrome is a serious and too often fatal childhood disease that has been recognized as a public health problem since 1963," Thompson said. "Presently there is little known about the disease and its causes.
But this bill will provide researchers with information that perhaps someday will lead to a cure for Reye's Syndrome." The disease is fatal in 20 to 30 percent of reported cases.

The measure, which creates the Reye's Syndrome Reporting Act, calls for the Department of Public Health to maintain records for researchers and physicians. It also provides for the protection of the physician-patient privilege.
House Bill 311 was sponsored by Representative Ben Palk of Moline, and Senator
Randy Thomas of Silvia.

collected by the state for the city has risen dramatically since 1969, when the average car cost $3,000 and the total tax bill was under $150. Now, the tax on an average car is over $600. "It seems like a stiff penalty for a new car buyer," he told the council.

He appealed for defeat of the additional one percent sales tax, saying,
"It definitely would cause me to relocate the dealership outside of Granite City. It may not be overnight, but it definitely will happen. Auto dealers will have to move out of town to make a profit," he contended.

He opposed enacting even a one-quarter percent city sales tax, saying

that it soon "could climb to two or three percent. I honestly feel that anything over 10 on the sale of a car is going to be detrimental."

Most auto dealerships, he contended, operate on a two or three percent profit margin, which is a poor return on the major investment he has in the dealership. "We will not be able to pay an extra $50 out of our profit and I don't expect to get an extra $150 out of a customer in taxes," Woodrome told the council.

"A lot of dealers, including some in Granite City, are in the red and this could just be the end of it. It's really detrimental to the business and, in the long run, going to be detrimental to the city, because you are going to reduce sales," he stated.

Woodrome said that today, Oldsmobile prices range from $12,000 for an equipped cutlass to $17,000 for a Toronado. "You're talking big money at a half percent or three-quarters of a percent," he added. The current sales tax is going up automatically as the price of cars goes up, he added, contending that trying to double that tax could be counter-productive, reducing the number of cars sold in the city and thus reducing the amount of tax the city receives from car sales.

Thus far, 20 individuals and organizations have agreed to erect booths at the carnival. There is still time for other groups to have booths, but they must provide their own booths or stands and must contact Nolan in advance at 452-6215 to arrange placement. A limit may be placed on the number of booths, so those considering having one should contact
Nolan as soon as possible, he said.

Vice-chairmen of the events and heads of the committees organizing the event are: Police Chief Ronald Veizer, security; Bill Badger, electrical; Barry Lohman, financing; Gary Schneider, publicity; and Ed Schultz, soap box derby.

"We hope everyone will mark his calendar and plan on being here for 'Overfest '81.' It looks like everyone is going to have a good time and it will be a fitting tribute to a structure which will be with us for many years to come.
'Bridging the Gap' which has separated us for so long between West Granite and the downtown area," Nolan concluded.

Mayor Saayk and the city administration which did not tell the whole story about taxation and Home Rule.

"We still live in a democracy and this requires active participation."

"Our group is looking into all areas of Home Rule," Steiner said.

At last week's anti-Home Rule meeting, Steiner said, a lot of time was spent educating the committee members on the dangers of unlimited taxing powers, so they can, in turn, talk to others.

Steiner said, "One member of our committee did some tax computing on his house in Madison. He reported that his total property tax bill for 1980 was $227, the city's portion being $27.

"The resident reported that on his last two utility bills the city tax was $5 each month, and this did not count the tax on water or telephone."

"It does not take much to figure out that with the new utility tax alone, even though the city administration says it is cutting out their portion of the property tax, the taxes paid to Madison will increase over 100 percent in a year."

"This is a far cry from what the administration would lead us to believe," Steiner emphasized.

"Everyone knows many of us have supported many of the city's programs, most of which have been federally funded in part."

"But this does not mean the citizens of Madison should blindly support everything the city administration wants."

"Mayor Saayk can't expect the citizens to give him a blank check for everything he proposes," Steiner maintained.

Any group wishing an informed speaker on the facts of Home Rule may call our "Hot Line" 432-8150 between 6 p.m. and 9 p.m. We will have a committee member speak to any local organization," Steiner said.

Bowler said that his committee will be "keeping a close look" at the workmen's compensation pool and other self-insured and semi-self-insured funds in the future and he made a motion which would authorize Schuler for City Clerk Robert W. Stevens to put money in the insurance funds when City Clerk Nick Petrillo is ill or absent.

Schuler responded, "You can make any motion you want, but you can't usurp the powers of an elected office holder."

Bowler then amended his motion to one asking that the workmen's compensation fund be funded, as per prior council agreement. That motion was approved.

Schuler responded, "I am going to have to get your permission for more (tax anticipation) warrants because those ($1.2 million already borrowed) warrants have to be repaid from the first taxes."

Commenting on the shortages in the insurance funds, Schuler stated, "If sufficient funds are not there, then the city council should have been told there was not enough money. Not to sit and hide the damn thing."

Bowler said it was only "by a fluke I found out the health plan wasn't funded. It was to be self-sustaining where we wouldn't have to put another penny in it. Where the money went, I don't know. He (Petrillo) doesn't know."

I take exception with that and may comment (finance committee) takes exception with that," Bowler stated.

There were no motions made to authorize additional borrowing, at this time, but Schuler indicated that if the city does not have sufficient funds to fully fund the health and workmen's compensation pools, borrowing may be necessary.

Alderman Warren Decker of the finance committee reported he had checked the bill list and believes all of the bills now are current.

ALLEGED CABLE LINK

Thomas L. Gimpbell, 29, of 713 N. 28th Place was charged Wednesday with connecting his home to cable television without authorization.

In other action:

-The board approved the use of the Harris school on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

-Approved the James Stuart Chapter Order of DeMolay use of the Louis Baer gym since insurance and other requirements had been met.

-Voted to pay Mrs. Shirley Geyer $300 for being an adviser to the Pom Pon girls.

-Approved the Fourth grade students attending the St. Louis Symphony at Powell Hall, sponsored by the Venice-Madison Fine Arts Council.

-Went on record that all contracts be sent out for bidding and not automatically re-awarded.

Madison school board gives budget approval

Prior to the opening of the Madison Board of Education meeting Thursday night the final public hearing was held on the 1981-82 district $6,280,700 budget.

Wade James, assistant superintendent of schools in Madison, acted as chairman. Since there were no objections or changes suggested the tentative budget was recommended to the board.

Major fund budget totals are: Educational Fund, $4,229,968; Building Fund, $624,700; Bonds and Interest Fund, $161,500; Municipal Retirement Fund, $85,200; and Transportation Fund, $491,050.

It was reported that Board Member Frank Daves was taken ill Thursday morning and is in room 351 of Beaumont Ward Hospital, St. Louis. Daves was reported to be suffering with high blood pressure.

Board Member Don Garrett commented, "I thought the board had voted to have the holes in the windows at Blair School replaced."

"I have said it before and I will say it again that schools on the other side of the tracks seem to have a lot of difficulty in getting any repairs done."

"The Blair teachers are good and the rooms on the northwest corner do not get any sun."

"Looks on the thermostats, that we talked about is not the answer to the problem."

"Another thing the blower at Blair is not working. We are responsible for the heat of these children," Garrett said.

Board President Sam Dymas said, "We talked about those windows last time and I would like for the superintendent to check with Eldon (Rhoads) about the blower and these windows."

The board then hired Mrs. Debbie Fagan as new choral music teacher.

Mrs. Dolores Folkers, curriculum director, reported that Mrs. Fagan had already started the choir and was planning to have one in the new middle school before Christmas.

Morris Miles to seek re-election

Morris W. Miles, county board member of District 16, announced his intention to run for re-election to that office at a dinner sponsored by the Chouteau Citizens Club at Holiday Inn, Edwardsville.

Madison county board District 16 covers four precincts in Mitchell, two in South Roxana and one in Hartford. The addition of the Hartford precinct was result of the recent redistricting brought about by voter referendum to reduce the number of seats in the State House.

Miles announced the members of his re-election committee will include William Thoeke, chairman; H. Gene Futch, treasurer; and Christine Wallace, press secretary. Mrs. Jeannine Stefanoff serves as dance committee chairman and is planning a Halloween night dance at the Croation Home in Madison as the kick-off fund raiser.

The dance will feature all the fried chicken one can eat, free refreshments and music from 8:30-12:30 by "Today." Further information on this fund raiser may be obtained from any member of the committee.

Campaign plans are being readied and precinct committeemen and precinct captains are being named to assist in the campaign, Miles said. Among those already enlisted are Art LaRose, precinct one and Lee Pavia, precinct four, Joe and Jeannine Stefanoff, precinct five, Goldie Barton and Betty Futch, precinct six, Juanita Barnes and Bob Douglas, precinct two and seven (South Roxana) Dean Reeves, Robert Lekrone and Bertis Maynard. Other volunteers were asked to contact committee members, precinct committeemen or precinct captains.

INJURED IN 20TH-MADISON MISHAP
Donna Love, 18, of 2213 Fourteenth St. was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 4:30 a.m. Saturday for treatment of injuries suffered in a collision of autos traveling in the same direction on Madison Avenue near 20th Street.

There was damage to the right rear of the auto of Michael Evans, 24, of 4083 Breckenridge Lane, Pontoon Beach, and the left rear of the Love car, whose right front end struck a utility pole. Evans was charged with transporting beer.

Attorney general honored

Illinois Attorney General Tyrone C. Fahnner was honored Friday for his work toward gaining changes in the state's Open Meetings Act by the Illinois Press Association.

The IPA, the association representing the 800 newspapers of the state, presented Fahnner a plaque in honor of his work in drafting and helping secure passage of needed changes in the act.

Also honored were the legislative sponsors of the changes, Rep. Jim Reilly, R-Jacksonville, and Sen. Prescott Bloom, R-Peoria. The awards were given during the luncheon of the 118th Annual IPA Fall Convention and Trade Show at Decatur.

IPA President Bill Schroeder said, "Now, that the changes have been enacted into law, it is apparent that they could not have been passed without the full efforts of the attorney general, the bill sponsors and the numerous citizens throughout the state who made their feelings known to their legislators."

"The changes to the Open Meetings Act are responsible and necessary. They serve the best interests of the public and public officials," he said. "We are proud to honor these public servants who have been willing to take on the responsibility of getting these changes made."

The changes to the act are effective Jan. 1, 1982.

the board's position and what resources were available to voters.

After the resolution is delivered to Regional Superintendent of Schools Harold E. Briggs, the area administrator may convene a hearing to afford Mangiaracino an opportunity to answer the petition for removal, it was learned.

The Venice Board of Education was unable to adopt the 1981-82 budget at its Sept. 14 meeting, which followed a public hearing, due to a lack of quorum.

At the time of the meeting, one member was on vacation and another was in hospital.

Some increases in the new tax levy were noted at Thursday night's session, which may result in a tax rate increase of three cents.

It was mentioned, however, that a 3 1/2 percent reduction was contained in last year's levy from which taxes are being collected at the present time.

The decrease came about by retirement of the 1973 working cash fund bonds this December and a reduction in the retirement fund levy.

In the new levy, increases of $10,000 were added to the building fund levy, $1,800 to the retirement fund levy and $2,000 to the workman's compensation levy.

The breakdown of the $500,000 tax levy for all funds are:

$400,000 educational; $60,000 building; $30,000 transportation; $7,000 working cash; $6,500 Illinois Municipal Retirement; $2,500 liability insurance and $7,000 workman's compensation insurance.

Broken bottle injured woman

Janice Hughes, 2717 Roosevelt Ave., was injured severely when struck by a broken beer bottle at the Long Beach Tavern, a report filed at 2:50 a.m. Saturday.

A fight involving her had broken out, and she stood up to see who was fighting. A man broke the bottle and threw it in her direction.

Suffering two facial lacerations, a nose fracture, and a laceration about the throat, she was taken to St. Elizabeth's Medical Center. The man being sought is about 25 years old, 5'10" tall, 170 pounds, with long, dark brown shoulder-length hair.

THE LESTERS, St. Louis' first family of gospel music, will be in concert on Oct. 1, at Tri-City Park Tabernacle, Maryville Road and Clark Avenue, the performance will begin at 7:30 p.m. and is open to the public. Admission free, according to the host pastor, The Rev. James Parks.

Certificate interest is tax free

The All Savers Certificate offered by the Granite City Bank shouldn't be taken at face value, according to Drew Karandjoff, president. Nor should the bank's special silver dollar bonus.

The All Saver interest rate might seem small compared to other certificate rates, he said, but because it is tax free, it is worth considerably more than its face value.

According to figures provided by Karandjoff, the initial 12.61 percent rate on the All Savers certificate is actually equal to 21.01 percent in taxable earnings for someone in the 40 percent bracket. The higher the person's tax rate, the more valuable the All Saver is to him. In general, anyone paying taxes at a rate of 30 percent or better will benefit from this certificate, he said.

Individuals can earn up to $1,000 in tax free interest and married couples up to $2,000 tax free through The Granite City Bank's All Saver Certificate. As a comparison, a couple in the 40 percent tax bracket would have to earn about $3,333 in taxable income in order to keep $2,000.

Those who invest $5,000 or more in an All Savers Certificate at the Granite City Bank will receive a silver dollar. "Real silver," Karandjoff emphasized. This too, he noted, is worth much more than its face value because it is real silver—as well as a collectors item today.

In order to earn the maximum amount of taxable interest an individual would need to invest $7,200 and the married couple $15,600 with the current 12.61 percent rate. The rate will change monthly and is 70 percent of the investment yield established at the monthly auction of one year Treasury Bills.

Those who have 6-month Money Market certificates and would prefer putting the money into the All Saver can make the change without penalty loss of interest at the Granite City Bank.

Certificates will be issued from Oct. 1, 1981 to Dec. 31, 1982, providing a one-time income-tax deduction.

Interest will be paid at the end of one year. Early withdrawal will result in an interest penalty. Tax exemption will be lost if the certificate is used as loan collateral or if withdrawn early.

Mental health unit appoints directors

Three area residents have been appointed to the board of directors at Mental Health Services, Southern Madison County, Inc. Appointments were announced by Evelyn Leeper, board president, at the annual board meeting held at the Granite City facility.

Diane Ratliff of Madison, James Schmiedake of Granite City and Arthur Zabalsky of Edwardsville, will begin their terms effective immediately. Diane Ratliff is a teacher and hopes her background in this field can be used effectively to benefit the service. Schmiedake is a laborer and is involved in the needs of younger members of the community. Zabalsky is an investigator-professor, and has strong views on the mental health field, and providing better resources for individuals in need of the service.

Mental Health Services is a private, not-for-profit organization that serves all residents in the southern half of Madison County. Services at the Mental Health Center include individual, family and group counseling, an adult socialization program, crisis intervention, community outreach, satellite services at 508 Broadway, Highland, and 115 South Main St. in Edwardsville.

The services include need to invest $7,200 and the married couple $15,600 with the current 12.61 percent rate. The rate will change monthly and is 70 percent of the investment yield established at the monthly auction of one year Treasury Bills.

Those who have 6-month Money Market certificates and would prefer putting the money into the All Saver can make the change without penalty loss of interest at the Granite City Bank.

Wade named by Venice board as secretary

George W. Wade Jr. was appointed secretary of the Venice Board of Education at its meeting Thursday night. He succeeded Larry D. Boyd, who resigned from the board Aug. 24.

Due to the absence of Board President Jack Tolliver, who was on vacation, Member Wilber Glasper was named acting president.

A related story concerning some actions by the board may be found on Page One.

In other business, the board authorized the issuance of tax anticipation warrants totaling $280,000 in this education fund and $40,000 in the building fund.

Commenting that the financial situation at Venice-Lincoln Technical Center appears more stable at the present time, Supt. of Schools Robert N. Vickers recommended the board rescind letters of honorable dismissal for Mrs. Linda Knipping and Mrs. Audrey Cross, teachers in the Venice Public Schools.

Mrs. Cross also was granted a one-semester leave of absence for medical reasons.

Miss Carolyn Darst was hired as a teacher for the special education high school program, providing she can meet state certification requirements. She is currently certified in Missouri, the superintendent said.

Several members of Venice Local 665, American Federation of Teachers, were present at the meeting and it was learned a proposal had been delivered to the school administrator earlier the same day.

Board members proposed opening negotiations with the teachers' representatives on the 1981-82 contract at a meeting Wednesday night, if the date is agreeable to the union, Supt. Vickers said.

No determination was made on whether the Venice School District should purchase a driver education vehicle or will lease a car for this purpose.

Supt. Vickers noted that Big & Chevrolet, which has loaned a vehicle to the district without cost for several years, is no longer able to continue the free use program.

"We do appreciate everything that Big & has done for us," the administrator said. "We have had a very good relationship with them for a number of years."

The Collinsville firm has offered to lease the district a vehicle at a fee of $299 per month, or allow Venice to purchase the 1981 Citation currently in use at a cost of $7,223.

A request also was received concerning the district providing driver education on Saturdays for two Metro-East High School students who live in Venice.

TRAFFIC CHARGES;
PASSENGER BEATEN

William H. Chlepp III, 23, of 5172 Lakeview Drive allegedly ran through a red traffic light on a motorcycle at 3:40 a.m. Saturday in Madison, and also was charged with speeding, fleeing from police and driving with an expired license. He was taken into custody in the 2100 block of Monroe, Granite City, and was released on $100 cash bail at 4:48 a.m.

Miss Sandy Ingram, 17, Second St., Madison, a passenger on the motorcycle, was beaten with fists about the face and shoulders at 6 a.m. Saturday in the 2100 block of Monroe. A suspect is being sought.

IS SPEEDING ARRESTS

Granite City police on Wednesday arrested 11 motorists for driving at speeds between 38 and 46 miles per hour in a 25 mph zone on Maryville Road. The same day, a driver was arrested for going 38 in a 30 mph zone on 20th Street, and another for driving 63 mph in a 35 mph zone on Madison Avenue.

support, but there are predictions that a "day of reckoning" is drawing near.

Possible merger candidates are said to include the safety and insurance agencies, purchasing department, licensing office, delinquent tax staff and mental health department.

Fred Dalton of the Finance Committee believes that "we have six people in five departments, and I don't see why some of their expenses couldn't be shared."

Also voicing favorable comments have been Committee Chairman William Little, Committee Members Donald McLean, Alan Dunstan and O. A. Weindel, and County Auditor Arthur "Pete" Fields.

Still undecided is the effect on the board committees that supervise or serve as liaison with various county offices. Efforts are to be made to avoid infringing on board members' "turf."

One approach may be to have each combined department retain its own functions within the physical confines of a single office suite.

Meanwhile, elected officials and appointed staffs are cooperating with Ralph Korte Planning Management, Inc., of Highland in pinpointing present and future office utilization and needs.

The study findings may be presented at the mid-October board meeting.

Auditor Fields has been busy in recent days reviewing departmental budget requests for the fiscal year beginning Dec. 1, 1981, and so far has found them to be "reasonable."

Preliminary increase requests total 13 percent but may later be pared.

Each county officialholder and department head was asked to submit a standardized form. Questions included how they would arrange their budgets if they received the same amount of money as last year, a five percent increase or a ten percent decrease.

The county's total yearly budget approaches $33 million, including $12 million in the general fund. Fields concedes that funds are tight, but opposes across-the-board budget alterations. He notes that some units of the county government are operating with "bare minimum" resources.

The county auditor and Mrs. Mary Kane, County Board administrator, have asked that the board consider consolidating some functions and eliminating others as a means of avoiding an imbalance between expenditures and available income.

Fields says, "Every governmental agency in the world has problems now in fighting inflation and keeping taxes down. The only way to do this is to have efficient operations."

"If we have departments which could save money by sharing certain costs, we should take a look at them."

"There may be departments that could share copying machines, secretaries, telephone costs, file cabinets and other equipment."

Budgeting procedural steps outlined by Mrs. Kane and Fields include determining use of $33,000 in federal shared revenue, allocating corporate personal property replacement funds, setting a county tax rate goal, establishing minimum balances acceptable for departmental checking accounts, and placing employment and training, manpower development, community development and tuberculosis clinic programs within the overall county financial management system.

Assistant State Attorney Marshall "Zeke" Smith, legal adviser to the County Board, is backing immediate merger of the licensing and delinquent tax departments.

He adds that some duties of the state's attorney and circuit clerk are duplicate in nature.

Smith takes the position that, even though many officials are elected on a county-wide basis, ultimate control is vested in the 28-district, 28-member County Board.

Comments, "Support the duties of State's Attorney Don Weber and Circuit Clerk Portell were combined in a particular area. If they didn't go along with it, then they could get absorbed on their budgets. I think it's time that the board members assess their authority more."

PLEADS INNOCENT

David Nigro, 18, of 2539 Pontoon Road, pleaded innocent at a hearing Saturday in Granite City on charges of assault, property damage and two counts of battery. He was released upon posting $502 cash bail.

That tradition began in 1927 with Calvin Collidge's national radio broadcast.

President Reagan was introduced by Donald V. Seibert, chairman of United Way of America's board of governors. The President's message marked the formal beginning of more than 2,100 local United Way campaigns across the nation.

Last year, United Ways raised a record $1.5 billion which helped support over 37,000 health and human care agencies and programs in local communities.

Tree seedling order blanks

Tree seedling order blanks have been received from the Illinois Forestry Department.

There are two state nurseries in Illinois, the Union Nursery at Jonesboro and the Mason Nursery at Topeka. Both produce tree seedlings for sale in the state.

Both hardwood and pine seedlings are available. Some of the pines available include red pine, Scotch pine, white pine and loblolly pine.

The hardwoods include black walnut, hickory, osage orange, hackberry, white oak, red oak, cypress and sycamore. Wildlife packets are also available.

Trees from the state nursery cannot be resold in any way with the roots attached, and cannot be used for landscaping purposes. They can be used for windbreaks, reforestation, wildlife cover, erosion control and Christmas trees.

Those interested in a tree order blank may contact Wayne Kinney at the Soil Conservation Service office or contact the Madison County Extension office in Edwardsville.

Melton a candidate for GC school board

E. Dewey Melton, 42, of 2529 Westmoreland Drive, who is serving on the Granite City Board of Education by appointment as an urban member, has issued a news release explaining why he is a candidate for election to the school board.

Melton was a school board member in Granite City, until being defeated in April 1980. When former board member Stephen Saltich was elected an alderman in the last city election, he resigned his post and Melton annexed his home into the city and was appointed to fill Saltich's urban seat on the board.

He has been a city resident since he was a fifth grade student and holds a bachelor of arts degree in mathematics from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

He is employed as a senior systems engineer for IBM in St. Louis, serving the federal reserve bank of St. Louis. He has been with IBM for 16 years and for three years taught data processing in the IBM St. Louis Education Center.

He and his wife, Karen, have four children, all students in the Granite City public schools. They belong to Second Baptist Church where Melton teaches Sunday School for high school boys.

While on the school board, he served three years on the police committee, two years on the Title I Advisory Board and one year on the special education board.

In announcing his candidacy for election, Melton made the following statement:

"I am formally announcing my candidacy for the two year term for member of the Granite City School Board. I intend to conduct a vigorous and active campaign to make voters aware of my candidacy and the pertinent issues as I see them. However, because there are nine candidates in this election and because so many have voiced objections to the widespread use of yard signs in past elections, I have decided not to use them in my campaign."

"During my terms on the board, I have tried to serve all interested parties fairly. I will continue to bring a fair-minded, balanced approach to decision making on the board."

"One pressing issue that members of the board must face is the deviceiveness and mistrust between the various elements of our educational community due to recent labor negotiations. This has had carryover impact to the community at large. This is a serious matter which could begin to effect the overall quality of our educational programs."

"Teachers have traditionally had honor and respect in our society, and, indeed, in all societies. This is right and proper; for these are the people who pass on our culture to our youth. They must have honor and respect to accomplish this."

E. DEWEY MELTON

"As boards of education and teacher unions negotiate and maneuver to try to reach labor settlements that both sides can live with, it must exercise care not to damage our product. In truth, we are the whole. One part cannot be damaged without hurting the whole. Now is the time to lay aside past hurts and go forward."

"I propose that a task force be formed consisting of elementary and secondary teachers, administrators and board members. I further propose that the members of this task force be selected randomly by drawing names from a hat or some other method. This would insure that we have a cross section from the involved parties."

"The mission of this task force would be to foster communication between the various elements of our educational system, to identify the frustrations or hindrances to the educational process, and to brainstorm ideas to make things work better. The output from this task force would be presented to the board of education and teachers union."

"I believe this would help bring a healing to past hurts and would make ours a better school system."

"As my campaign progresses, I plan to publicly discuss other issues as I see them and to ask for public input," Melton concluded.

CHORAL SOCIETY TO BEGIN REHEARSALS

The Community Choral Society at SUE will begin rehearsals for the 1981-82 season at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 29, in Room 1402 of the Peck Classroom Building.

Choral Society membership is open, not only to students attending classes at the university, but also to members of the community who are interested in choral singing. The Society will perform Bach's "Magnificat" Dec. 6 at the Eden Retirement Village in Edwardsville, and Haydn's "Creation" will be performed next May.

Obituaries

Sally Baker

Mrs. Sally F. (Fischer) Baker, 46, formerly of Granite City, died at 12 noon Wednesday, Sept. 26, 1991, at her home in Prairie Village, Kan., following an extended illness.

Mrs. Baker was a teacher in the primary grades of the Kansas City, Mo., school system.

Prior to moving to Kansas City 14 years ago, she taught at the Mitchell Grade School.

She was a 1953 graduate of Granite City High School and 1957 graduate of the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana.

A native of Kewanee, Ill., Mrs. Baker formerly resided in Granite City for 15 years.

She was a member of the Second Presbyterian Church in Kansas City, Phi Beta Phi and the PEO Sisterhood. Among the survivors are her husband, Byron N. Baker, a son, Bradley F. Baker, and a daughter, Miss Megan Lynn Baker, both at home; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. (Goldie G.) Fischer of Granite City; a brother, James R. Fischer of Deerfield, Ill.; and a sister, Mrs. Nancy F. Birch of Tucson, Ariz.

Funeral services were held at 3:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 26, at Mount Moriah Mortuary in Kansas City, Mo. Burial was in the Mount Moriah Cemetery.

Expressions of sympathy may be extended through memorials to the American Cancer Society.

Marion Ted Barr

Marion Ted Barr, 52, of 16 Moorland Drive, died at 4 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 26, 1991, at Firms Desloge Hospital, St. Louis.

He had been hospitalized since Sept. 4 when his auto collided with a tractor-trailer on Route 3, near East St. Louis.

Mr. Barr sustained serious injuries in the crash and was pinned in his car for one hour and 40 minutes. Initially, he was taken to St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis, but later was transferred to Firms Desloge.

Born in Venice, Mr. Barr was a lifelong resident of the Quad-Cities. He had served in the Marine Corps and was a member of the local Marine Corps League.

Mr. Barr had been employed as an electrician by ABC Electrical Service Co. for the past 36 years.

He was a member of Emmanuel Baptist Church, IBEW Local 309, Madison Amvets 204, Eagles Aerie 1126 and the Granite City Lions Club.

Among the survivors are his wife, Mrs. Peggy (Rottiff) Barr; three daughters, Mrs. Norman (Kim) Warner of Granite City, Mrs. Harold (Pamela) Mammel of Kewanee, Tex., and Miss Joy Renee Barr of Webster Groves, Mo.; his mother, Mrs. Cora Barr of Madison; and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Earl (Barbara) Ingram of Madison; and four grandchildren.

Services will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 26, at Bob Thomas Memorial Mortuary, 2205 Pontoon Road, where friends may call after 7:30 p.m. Monday.

Burial will be at Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville Township.

Robert Burns

Robert W. Burns, 81, of 518 Main St., Venice, was found dead at his home Sunday, Sept. 27, 1991. He was pronounced dead at 10:15 a.m. by Deputy Coroner Dick Mizell after emergency medical technicians were summoned.

Born in Madison, he was a lifelong resident of the Quad-City area. He had been ill for four months and was under medical care.

Mr. Burns was a crane operator at the General Steel plant here until retiring in 1966.

His wife, Mrs. Mary Belle Burns, died in 1952.

Survivors are a niece, Loretta Zeigler of Venice; two granddaughters, Mrs. David (Patricia) Daniels of Venice and Mrs. Norman (Billie J.) Cardwell of Virginia Beach, Va.; four great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are pending at the Lahey-Sedlack Funeral Home, 501 Madison Ave., Madison (telephone 876-6222).

Elizabeth Deffenbaugh

Mrs. Elizabeth E. (Groves) Deffenbaugh, who resided with her grandnephew, Lee C. Harlan III, and his family at 1734 Fourth St., Madison, passed away Friday, Sept. 25, 1991, at 11:05 a.m.

She had been a patient at St. Elizabeth Medical Center for two days. Born in Bunker Hill, Ill., she had resided in this community for the last 15 years.

A former teacher in the Madison schools, she attended Washington University and St. Louis University.

She had served as house parent supervisor at the Missouri School for the Blind.

Mrs. Deffenbaugh, 88, was a former director of nurses' residency at the Jewish Hospital, St. Louis, and a former supervisor at MacMurray College in Jacksonville, Ill.

She attended the First United Presbyterian Church in Granite City and was a member of the Congregational Church of Bunker Hill.

Mrs. Deffenbaugh was a sister-in-law of the late Dr. Lee C. Harlan Sr. of Madison.

She is survived by two nephews, George M. Harlan of Los Angeles, Calif., and Richard Taylor of Bloomington, Ill., and three nieces, Mrs. Willanette Hill, Wendine Tarping and Maxine Quakenbush, all of Alton.

She was the great-aunt of Margaret Harlan Lyons and great-great-aunt of Collins and Kyle Harlan and Lisbeth Lyons.

Visitation took place at the Bob Thomas Memorial Mortuary, 2205 Pontoon Road, Granite City, beginning at 1 p.m. Sunday. Private funeral services were held at the Thomas Chapel at 10 a.m. today, Sept. 28, with burial in the Bunker Hill, Ill., Cemetery.

Memorials may be made in Mrs. Deffenbaugh's name to the Missouri School for the Blind or the National Arthritis Foundation.

Elizabeth Dodson

Miss Elizabeth Dodson, 80, a retired Granite City teacher, died at 12:40 a.m. Friday, Sept. 25, 1991, at The Colonades nursing home here.

Formerly a resident of 2804 Grand Ave., she had resided at The Colonades for the past one and a half years.

Miss Dodson taught English at the former Central Junior High School for many years. She was employed as a teacher in the Granite City district for 40 years.

walking north when he was struck by a northbound car, which then drove away. A description of the car was radioed on the Illinois State Police Radio Network (ISPERN) to all area law enforcement agencies.

Later, the state police reported they had found the auto, abandoned, on Route 157 near Route 162 in Maryville. The auto had front end damage, troopers said.

Authorities began looking for the owner of the car until Wood River police telephoned the Pontoon Beach police to tell them that Moses had gone to the Wood River police headquarters.

reported the accident and was "on his way to Pontoon Beach to surrender. When he arrived, he was issued the ticket alleging leaving the scene of an accident.

Officers questioned several of Mr. Horton's friends and learned that the victim had been at a party in a nearby home prior to the accident and was apparently walking home when he was struck.

Mr. Horton was born in Detroit, Mich., but resided most of his life in Granite City. He was a member of the Mormon church in Fairview Heights.

Instruction main factor in school budget boost

Historical trail hike by Troop 7

With higher school bus transportation costs offsetting reduced spending in the building fund, Granite City public schools are concentrating more on the fall's budget increase in the education program.

The overall 1981-82 District Nine budget, placed on final adoption Sept. 15, amounts to $27,739,266, up $1,717,060 compared to the final 1980-81 budget.

Biggest element of the new budget is the $24,201,726 appropriated for the education fund, an increase of $1,730,245.

The most extensive education fund changes are for instruction, $19,228,995, up $1,094,775, fixed charges $2,557,300, up $449,952, and operating costs of $2,652,800, up $219,980, with the lunch program budgeted at $1,324,200, a decrease of $12,300.

Tentative tax levies for the Granite City community unit school district, to be enacted in December, amount to $8,226,400 (compared to $7,348,903 extended a year ago) and include:

Education—$12,120,000 ($5,500,232); operations, building and maintenance $900,000 ($817,513); transportation $2,652,800 ($281,804); Illinois municipal retirement fund $470,400 ($350,985); life safety fund for building modernization $120,000 ($109,000); identical $120,000 ($109,000) for working class; and $230,000 ($200,365) for tort immunity (injury and damage suits).

The new school tax rate is projected as $3.431, up 6.21 cents on each $100 of assessed valuation, based on the proposed levies and an estimated 1981 assessment of $249 million. The 1980 valuation total was $218,003,655.

As noted, the final 1981-82 budget of $27,739,266 represents an increase of $1,717,060 over the previous year's budget.

This total consists of:

Education, including tort immunity, $24,201,726, up $1,730,245.

Operations, building and maintenance, including life safety, $1,504,940, down $142,260.

Transportation, $1,310,600, up $114,075.

And municipal retirement, $722,000, up $15,000 from the 1980-81 budget.

A breakdown of the 1981-82 Granite City school district final budget follows:

Boy Scout Troop 7, sponsored by St. Joseph's Catholic Church, participated in a 1904 World's Fair Historical Trail hike last week.

The Scouts hiked 10 miles along a circular trail through Forest Park and Washington University.

Scouts hiking with Scoutmaster Robert Maner in the event were Kevin Williamson, Mike Brazel, Mark Brazel, Tim Symcek, Greg Hagen, Chuck Matosiej, Joey Kuschmierzak, Karl Markovich, Eric Markovich, James Barron, Jeff Kittle, Norman Fulkerson, and Frank Scaturro.

Scouts answered questions at certain points of the Trail.

Highlighting the hike were visits to the McDonnell Planetarium and the St. Louis Zoo, including the new Coral Reef exhibit.

After the hike the Scouts viewed the 9th Annual Great Forest Park Hot Air Balloon Race, in which some 40 "hound" balloons chased a "hare" balloon.

The boys also saw an ultra-light air demonstration, involving gliders with motors.

At the event, the Scouts enjoyed pizza and soda in downtown St. Louis.

The historical Trail was established to tell the story of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition held in St. Louis in 1904.

Arrest two on warrants

John L. Schumate, 17, of 2008 Washington Ave., Apt. 4, is to be sentenced by Associate Judge Thomas Hildebrand after he pleaded guilty to failing to appear in court on an earlier battery charge.

Schumate was arrested Sunday when an ambulance was called to his home because he felt ill and dizzy. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center and police ordered him held, since there was a warrant on file for his arrest for failing to appear in court.

Also at his home was Barbara S. Schumate, 22, who was sought on a warrant alleging failure to pay a fine on a theft charge. She also was taken into custody.

A short time later, he signed himself out of the medical center without treatment and officers took him to the Granite City Jail, where he was lodged.

Did You Try To Buy It Here At Home First?

Your dollar is always BIGGER at home!

It's a fact...33 cents of each dollar you spend goes to taxes and contributions that pay for our community's services and facilities.

When that dollar is spent here at home, you and we can enjoy the benefits of better living and richer opportunities.

When we spend it elsewhere, in the nearest big city, then YOUR dollar pays for these advantages for SOMEBODY ELSE. And...to make it even worse, you still must pay those local taxes anyway.

Don't pay taxes twice...shop at home! It's the best money and time-saving habit we know.

Tampa capitalizes on Favron's errors

Special to the Press-Record

TAMPA — It just was Calvin Favron's day here Sunday. Just when it looked like the St. Louis Cardinals would get their second win of the young National Football League season, Favron, the third-year linebacker from Southeast Louisiana State who usually languishes in obscurity, came into the spotlight and two plays that most certainly cost St. Louis victory in its 20-10 loss to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

With 11:15 remaining in the game, St. Louis placekicker Neil O'Donoghue booted a 47-yard field goal to apparently give his team a 13-6 lead. But Favron was called for and personal foul — "kicking an opponent" — and the field goal was nullified. The penalty moved the Cards out of O'Donoghue's field goal range.

After the ensuing punt by Carl Birdsong, the Buccaneers marched 80 yards down the field in 16 plays and scored the go-ahead touchdown. The touchdown came when James Owens scooted in from three yards out. Along the way was a missed tackle by guess who? Right, Calvin Favron.

About his "kicking" penalty, Favron said, "I've been using that same blocking technique for years and I've been called for it. I was laying out horizontally and some guy tripped over my leg. I didn't kick anybody."

Cardinal coach Joe Hanftan was upset at the call. "It's not my Irish up," he said. "I got violent there, but I'll probably be even more violent after I see the films of it."

The exciting finish was about the only exciting thing about the Sunday afternoon game played before more than 60,000 screaming Buccaneers fans in Tampa Stadium. "This is one of the most frustrating games we've had," said Hanftan. "And we've had a few, too."

After the Big Red got the ball back, there was still plenty of time remaining on the clock. And the Cards' offense had come to life in the third quarter and pushed the Bucs around the field. It seemed a good guess that overtime was a possibility with the score 13-6. But St. Louis decided not to go with its running game at all — one that had seen All-Pro running back Otis Anderson break the 100-yard barrier for the first time this season (only to drop back to 97 for the day when he lost yardage late in the game). Quarterback Jim Hart tried to hit wide receiver Pat Tiller with a fly-pattern bomb down the left sideline. But it was incomplete and nearly intercepted by Tampa's John Holt (who was the player "kicked" earlier in the game by Favron). Hart's next pass

WAS intercepted — by Cecil Johnson.

The interception gave the Buccaneers the ball at the St. Louis 39-yard line. Three plays later, Jerry Eckwood ran a sweep around the right end and scampered untouched into the end zone. The Buccaneers had scored 14 points in the last three minutes of the game to turn what looked like a boring low-scoring game into an apparent high-scoring romp.

Tampa Bay's vaunted defense was just that in the first quarter. And the offense didn't do too bad either. The Bucs completely controlled play. The Big Red managed only three offensive plays in the period. Tampa's offense spluttered on two drives and had to settle for a pair of field goals by Ed Caspece. O'Donoghue booted a 20-yarder in the second quarter to make it 6-3 at halftime.

In the third quarter, they started eliciting for the Big Red. They marched through the Tampa Bay defense and took the lead on a one-yard run by Willard Harrell on a fourth-and-goal situation.

But it wasn't enough. Just ask Calvin Favron.

NOTES: The Cardinals will return to Busch Stadium next Sunday when they host the Dallas Cowboys. Hart suffered a pinched nerve in the fourth quarter Sunday, but isn't expected to miss any action because of it.

DEFENSE NEVER RESTS. Granite City North's Darren DePew (43, left), and Allen Prengel (22) pursue Wood River's Todd White (33). The Steelers held Wood River to 71 yards.

DePew shines

North shuts out Oilers

By ROGER KRAMER
For the Press-Record
WOOD RIVER — The scorebook said the Granite City North Steelers defeated Wood River 28-0 Friday in a non-conference football game, but it seemed as if the Steelers' Darren DePew singlehandedly defeated the Oilers.

DePew, a junior, set up the opening touchdown with a 41 yard run, kicked three field goals, including a school record 54-yarder, passed for a touchdown, and kept Wood River in poor field position all evening, with his kicking.

"The kicking game took us out of the game," Wood River coach Bill Perry said. "We couldn't do much because we were in a hole most of the game."

He (DePew) broke our backs." A Steeler coach Tom Wyrostek knew a 15-20 mile per hour wind would give the Steelers the advantage, and DePew made best use of it.

"Field position was very important on a windy night. DePew kicked the ball deep, and kept them out of good field position," Wyrostek said.

DePew used his running talents to set up North's first touchdown. He took the ball to the 41 yard line on the next play, quarterback Carl Luehman pushed up the middle for the touchdown with 8:54 left in the quarter.

rushing and beat the Oilers 28-0 Friday in a non-conference game at Wood River to make their record 2-1. It was North's second straight shutout victory.

Quincy Weekend South downs Blue Devils

QUINCY — You could almost hear the field at Quincy Stadium breathe a sigh of relief. After a rainstorm and a varsity football game the night before and two varsity soccer games Saturday, it could rest for awhile. Same went for Granite City South's soccer team, which had just won its second game in less than 24 hours, 2-1 over a fired-up Quincy Senior High squad.

"I think we played pretty well," said South coach Gene Baker. "We were little tired from the Althoff game (Friday) and the long drive up. But I don't think it was much of a factor."

"Wilson's been tough on us

"Quincy's a strong team. They can get things done in a hurry. And they're always tough on their own field." South, which defeated Belleville Althoff 1-0 Friday night (see related story), had to come from behind to beat the Blue Devils. Super-quick striker Roger Wilson took a through pass from a teammate and got behind the South defense. South goalie Joe LeMaster came out to cut off Wilson's angle, but the speedy junior pushed the ball behind him. Halfback Greg White tried to get back to the net and kick the ball away, but he couldn't get there in time. The goal at the 7:18 mark of the first quarter made it 1-0 Quincy.

"Wilson's been tough on us

ever since he was a freshman," said Baker. "And he's finally grown some too. He's not so little and quick anymore. He's bigger — but he's still quick." South finally got its scoring attack oiled in the second quarter. Scott Vickers scored the first of two goals to tie the score 1-1. White passed the ball to Fritz Brewer, who fed Vickers the ball on the far right side of the goal. Vickers pushed the ball into the net from about four yards out at 3:33 of the second quarter.

"Scott's coming along quite well," said Baker. "He's getting more into the flow of the game and is starting to do a lot of things well."

Steelers lose first, 2-0

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

QUINCY — Bob Kehoe has seen a lot of soccer in his many years of coaching the sport that is his life. And one thing he's learned to accept is defeat. Graciously. But not the kind of defeat handed his team 2-0 here Saturday at Quincy Stadium by Quincy Notre Dame. Oh, he gave Notre Dame credit. But it was his own team, which suffered its first loss of the season, he was upset with. "We deserved to lose," he said. "Anytime your team doesn't play up to its capabilities, I'm upset."

"If we play our best and lose, that's ok. But that didn't happen. We just took a bus ride to Quincy and trotted around the field four an hour and a half. We didn't do in playing."

The non-conference loss for the Steelers makes their record 4-1-3 on the season. "I don't care who you are," said Kehoe. "People just aren't going to lay down for you. For the most part, none of the players on our team played well. They just weren't in it."

Notre Dame got on the board with its first goal at the 15:16 mark of the third quarter. Greg Reese scored on a 35-yard booming shot that dived Steeler goalie Rich Branding just managed to get his fingertips on. "Branding was out off his line too," said Kehoe. "That may have contributed to it some." The Raiders' second goal came early in the fourth quarter at the 18:06 mark. Tim Thomas took a pass from teammate Bill Drey and kicked the ball into the goal from about five yards out.

"I'm going to take part of the blame for this loss," said Kehoe. "I asked the players to switch to a different formation on the field. We drew the whole thing up for them on the blackboard inside the locker room before the game, and it didn't seem that difficult. But I think may have entered into their play. They said they understood it, but I'm not sure they all did. They just kind of stood

Tigers down Warriors in final ticks 27-22

By TERESA GULL
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Granite City South fought a bitter football battle against Edwardsville Friday night. But for the third straight week, the Warriors came up short, losing to the Tigers 27-22 in the final ticks of the game.

It was the first Gateway East Conference Game for both teams. But Edwardsville, a top contender for the conference title, didn't earn the victory easily on South's field.

Jerry McKeen, first-year head football coach for South, was disappointed with the defeat but proud of the fight his team gave Edwardsville.

"We're going to change this thing around," referring to the team's winless season last year and 0-2 mark to far this year. "I'm pleased. The boys played well."

"We have nothing to be ashamed of. We'll be back. We were so close but yet so far."

South's almost gave McKeen his first victory, but its turnovers, penalties and inability to contain Edwardsville's ground game gave Edwardsville win number one for the 1981 football season.

"They're 16 and 17 year old kids. If they're aggressive mistakes, fine," McKeen said. "They played with their hearts."

With 7:47 left in the fourth quarter, South's Joe Schnefke recovered an Edwardsville fumble on the Tigers' 48-yard line. Nine plays later, with 5:06 remaining, South quarterback John Linhart rolled to his left, shook off several defenders and threw a five-yard touchdown pass to George Diak. Rick Daily's extra point was good and South led 22-21. They could almost taste a 1-0 GEC record.

Edwardsville came right back, however, with a 75-yard touchdown drive in nine running plays. Kevin Mosby took the pitch from quarterback Wendell Brown and scored on a five yard sweep to his right. Edwardsville failed on its two point pass conversion attempt.

South didn't give up. With

1:42 left in the game, Tim Phelps returned the kick-off to South's 38-yard line. A pass interference penalty against Edwardsville gave South a first down on Edwardsville's 47-yard line, but on the next play, Linhart's pass was intercepted by Mike Kohlmler, ending the chance of a victory for South.

Both McKeen and Edwardsville head coach Dick Ford praised Linhart's passing performance. He completed 22 of 44 attempts for 212 yards.

"Linhart had a great football game," Ford said. "He's a great quarterback." Linhart was pleased with the pass protection he received and the amount of time he had to throw the ball.

"Everybody did a good job. We just didn't win the game," Linhart said. "They played good when they had to. I just wished we would have had one more chance."

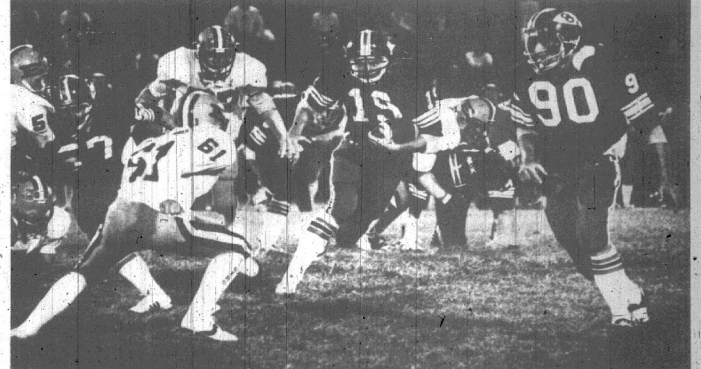

Both South and Edwardsville had plenty of scoring opportunities. Edwardsville struck first in the opening quarter when Jean Edmond picked up a fumble by South's Dan Harris and carried it into the end zone on a 36-yard run. The extra point was missed by Mosby and Edwardsville led 6-0.

In the next series of plays, Edmond suited South's drive when he intercepted a Linhart pass and returned it 15 yards to Edwardsville's 36. South's defense held tough, however, forcing Edwardsville to punt. Scott Abbott blocked Mike Kohlmler's punt, giving the ball to South on Edwardsville's 24-yard line. With the ball on the 11-yard line and fourth down and seven yards to go, situation, Edwardsville was penalized for encroachment, giving South fourth down on Edwardsville's three-yard line.

Linhart then scored on a three yard sweep to his left after scrambling out of the pass pocket. Linhart passed to Diak for the two point conversion and South led 8-6.

During South's next possession, Linhart's pass was intercepted by Mark Johnson of Edwardsville's eleven yard line. On the next

Cougar cagers announce 'murderers row' slate

EDWARDSVILLE — A "murderers' row" lineup that includes Rutgers University, Southeast Missouri State University, a pair of mid-season tournaments and two games in the St. Louis Checkermode are on tap for first year head coach Tom Pugliese and the basketball Cougars of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Athletic Director Eldon Bigham announced today that SIUE will open the season Nov. 19 with an exhibition game against the Yugoslavian National team that won the 1980 Olympic title, before the Cougars christen their collegiate season Nov. 24 at Cape Girardeau, Mo. against

The 1981-82 schedule also includes a pair of games at Collinsville High School. The Cougars, who will play most of their home contests in the Edwardsville High School gymnasium while waiting for their $11.8-million Multipurpose Building to be completed, will entertain the University of Wisconsin-

Superior (Jan. 25) and Southeast Missouri State (Feb. 4) in Collinsville. The Cougars will also play in their "home-away-from-home," the Checkermode, twice in 1981-82. SIUE will battle St. Louis University (Nov. 28) and the University of Missouri-St. Louis (Feb. 11) in the Checkermode.

Also on tap for the Cougars will be a Dec. 4-5 date at Missouri Baptist College for the Coca-Cola Classic and a Dec. 18-19 engagement in the Kentucky Wesleyan Tournament. Also featured on the 1981-82 schedule will be: the University of Missouri-Kansas City (UMKC), Indiana State University at Evansville, McKendree College, Millikin University, Lindenwood College, Illinois

Institute of Technology (Feb. 4) in Collinsville. The Cougars' home-opener scheduled Nov. 30, when they battle UMKC. Their longest home-stand of the season will be between the Jan. 16 game with IIT and the Jan. 20th contest against St. Xavier. Between those dates, the Cougars will battle Quincy (Jan. 20), Wisconsin-Superior (Jan. 25 in Collinsville) and Indiana State-Evansville (Jan. 27). Their longest road trip of the season will fall between Feb. 6 and Feb. 22, when six games are scheduled, beginning with UMKC. The Cougars' final game of the regular-season will be Feb. 27 against Lindenwood.

Golfers are impressive

EDWARDSVILLE — Competing with one of the youngest teams in Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville history, the Cougar golf team opened the fall portion of the 1981-82 season Monday by turning in an impressive second-place showing at the seven-team University of Evansville Invitational Tournament.

The Cougars, who sent two freshmen, sophomore and three juniors out on the Oak Meadow Country Club course, turned in a 389, just two strokes behind the tournament champions from the University of Louisville. SIUE finished a 410, Kentucky Wesleyan College a 420 and Indiana State University at Evansville a 421.

Despite being rained out of a scheduled practice session and a rain-soaked course, the Cougars recorded some outstanding individual scores. Jim Kurtzborn, a junior from Ferguson, Mo., turned in a 77, good for fourth place in the overall standings. Teammate Bob Donnewald, a junior from Carlyle, recorded a 78 to finish just one position behind Kurtzborn. Sophomore Mark Marcuzzo, from Stanton, recorded a 79, while junior Jay Eihansen and freshman Harry Hazelhurst posted identical 82s. Kevin Nielsen, a freshman from Belleville, completed the round for the Cougars with an 84 in his collegiate debut.

Despite having the second-place trophy safely tucked away, the Cougars won't have much time to enjoy their first competition of the year as they jump into the fire Friday, when they travel to the University of Northern Iowa for the UNI Invitational Tournament in Cedar Falls. A three-day 72-hole tournament, the 1981 UNI Invitational will feature 28 of the best teams in the midwest, including the University of Iowa, Iowa State University, the University of Wisconsin, the University of Nebraska, the University of Minnesota-Duluth and SIUE.

Steamers announce signing of Vaninger

ST. LOUIS — The St. Louis Steamers have announced the signing of veteran forward Danny Vaninger to one year contract with an option. Terms of the agreement were not disclosed.

The 6-2, 180 pound St. Louisian begins his second season with the MISL's Central Division Champions. He'll report with his teammates Oct. 1 when head coach Al Trost welcomes the players to training camp at Castle Oak Indoor Soccer Club.

The former United States National Team player was a teammate of Trost's when both played for the St. Louis Stars. After the club moved west to become the California Surf, Vaninger went on to play for Ft. Lauderdale and completed his outdoor career with the New Jersey Americans of the American Soccer League. "I'm really happy to have Danny on the club once again," said Trost. "He was always the one who would come through with a goal for the Stars when one was needed. There's no telling how good he can be for us if he stays healthy all year. He's a goal scorer, possesses a good shot, reads the ball coming off the boards very well, and has great anicipation. He's a team player and good for morale." Vaninger got off to a fast start in 1980-81, scoring three goals in the home opener against Baltimore. He suffered a pulled hamstring in early December at Hartford and fractured his left ankle in New York on Feb. 1. He appeared in only nine games.

Vaninger becomes the 20th player under contract to the Steamers.

Dear Editor,
I would like to compliment me to the Granite City Press-Record on your recent Football Soccer Preview. It was well done and made enjoyable reading. But why wasn't the Metro-East Lutheran High soccer team included in the preview? The Lutheran Knights are off to a good start with a win at Waterloo last week. The Knights schedule includes both Midland and Triad. I would have liked to have seen Lutheran High's Soccer program included. Metro-East Lutheran is a young, small but growing school. The area already beginning to hear from us academically and will be hearing from us athletically as well. —Dee Cochran, Collinsville

Hoosiers slip by Cougar kickers

Special to the Press-Record
BLOOMINGTON, Ind. — The Indiana University soccer Hoosiers used two penalty kicks by All-America Armando Betancourt to edge SIU-Edwardsville's Cougars Sunday afternoon 3-2.

"Both calls were questionable," said SIU-E coach Bob Guelker. "I didn't agree with them. But anytime the number two team in the country has to have two penalty kicks to beat you, that says something for our program."

The game marked the fourth time former Granite City State All-Stater Mark Goldschmidt had played against his former "neighbors," the Cougars. "I thought it was a pretty fair game," he said. "Both teams played well. There weren't any cheap shots out there."

"I think our number two ranking is justified," said Goldschmidt. "But I think SIU-E ought to be higher than eleven. They're one of the top five teams in the country and certainly one of the best teams we've played this season."

Betancourt's two penalty kicks gave the Hoosiers a 2-0 lead. On the first one, Cougar Dan Malloy was called for showing an Indiana player during a melee in front of the Cougar goal. On the second, Mike Twissell was whistled for tripping. But back came the Cougars. At the 61:01 mark, Malloy made good on a header off a throw-in from brother Pat Malloy. Then Steve Gaurvin headed in the tying goal after a free kick by Tom Groark.

Indiana got the winning goal at the 70:45 mark when Pat McGauley headed in a corner kick by teammate Mike Hylla. The loss dropped SIU-E to 2-5, while Indiana upped its mark to 6-1, its lone loss coming at the hands of the University of Connecticut, the number one ranked team in the nation.

"Playing against a St. Louis area school is like playing UCLA in basketball," said Goldschmidt. "Because of the tradition, you know it'll be a tough game."

Before we took the field today, you could feel it in the air. Our team was fired-up. We always are when we play SIU."

Guelker said, "Even though this game was important to the rankings, the games next week in the Governor's Cup (at Eastern Illinois) will be more important. They'll be important in determining who gets a bid to the NCAA Tournament."

"I'm proud of our kids," he said. "They were down 2-0 but kept putting on the pressure and came back to win. Indiana outshot SIU-E 13-6 and had an 11-4 edge in corner kicks. Fouls were even at 26."

'Patience' rescues bald eagle

Special to the Press-Record

"Patience," in both a literal and figurative way, coupled with some sophisticated 20th century technology, led investigators with the Interior Department's U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service last month to the conclusion of an unusual case involving the death of an endangered bald eagle.

A matchless radio transmitter emitting a prolonged rapid-pulse "distress" signal off the tail of a bald eagle nicknamed "Patience" led airborne biologists to a remote island in Oregon's Snake River, where they discovered the lone eagle's burial site.

The discovery, after three months of charting the research birds' elusive migration path through the intermountain West, was the first time that researchers, aided by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service law enforcement agents. Charged with the protection of the endangered bald eagle was an Oregon rancher, who had tossed its carcass into the island's garbage dump last January. There, its neighbor, a radio device continued to emit a staccato pulse that led its trackers each closer to the scene of the bird's abrupt end.

In late July, after a lengthy investigation during which the eagle's body was confessed to the poisoning, the Federal Court in Portland, Oregon, ordered Evan John Mackey, 35, of Ontario, to pay a $2,500 fine under a settlement with the U.S. Attorney's office. Under the agreement, one-half of Mackey's fine will be turned over to Glacier National Park's Bald Eagle Research Project to fund further research. Mackey received the fine and a 30-day suspended jail sentence for violating the Gold Eagle Protection Act.

"Patience" was a three-year-old female that had not yet acquired the "bald" head of white feathers distinctive of mature five-year-old birds. It became a research subject last October in the McDonald Creek section of Montana's Glacier Park. There, researchers captured the bird, attached the tiny radio transmitter, and identified it with a numbered tag. Released in a program sponsored by the National Park Service and the University of Montana and supported by the National Audubon Society and the Wildlife Management Institute, the scientists are studying the migration patterns of the majestic birds, which are officially listed as "endangered" in 43 states and "threatened" in five others. (In Alaska, the species is not in such danger, however.)

An estimated 10 percent of the bald eagles known to winter in the United States pass through Glacier each fall, according to Dr. Riley McClellan, leader of the park's Bald Eagle Research Project. At times, their concentration in McDonald Creek can range as high as 600 birds. Last fall, researchers began equipping the birds with radio transmitters in an effort to reveal the eagles' winter migration routes farther south and their return routes to summer nesting grounds in the middle fork of the Snake River, with an eye towards developing a management plan for crucial roosting and feeding sites along their path.

"Patience" remained in the vicinity of Glacier Park and nearby Flathead Lake until last December, when it departed on a migration of more than 500 miles along Idaho's Bitterroot Mountains and the middle fork of the Snake River. This was the first time that researchers were able to fully track a single bird's westerly migration, in contrast to the more southerly migration route taken by most of Glacier's eagles.

Harriet Allen, a biologist with the Bald Eagle Research Project, tracked the bird for most of its journey, driving a total of more than 6,000 miles on mountain roads as she followed the flight path. Somewhere along the Snake River near Ontario, Oregon, "Patience's" radio signals were lost. Allen re-established contact during two air flights over the river, but an unchanging series of "fast pulse" radio signals told her the bird was possibly in trouble.

Allen pinpointed Old Crow Island, about two miles south of Ontario where she had sighted the bird on one instance the week before, as the site of the distress signals. The island, in the middle of the Snake River, is owned by the State of Oregon and leased for farming and grazing. There, under a foot of rubbish covered with a sheet of metal, Allen and state biologists found "Patience." Its orange wing markers torn off by its radio transmitter still attached and operating, X-rays by an area veterinarian later revealed that the bird had been struck in the head by a single No. 6 shotgun pellet.

"I felt a tremendous sense of loss, as did everyone on the project," Allen said. "There was much more we could have learned from this bird. But it was one of the few instances when we could fully piece together the details of one of the many eagles' journeys in the West."

Fish and Wildlife Service's Division of Law Enforcement in Portland estimates that up to 200 bald and golden eagles may be killed in the Pacific Northwest each year by gunners who illegally shoot raptors (birds-of-prey), by suppliers of the illicit trade in eagle feathers and related items, and by people who set baited traps for other wildlife and accidentally snare eagles.

The Service began an investigation into the eagle's death by interviewing nearby landowner Mackey, who raises livestock and poultry on Old Crow Island. Mackey, a Malheur County jailer and rancher, confessed to shooting the bird in January, claiming that he thought the bird was a hawk that posed a threat to his livestock. (On an earlier problem involving depredation on geese on his grain crop, Mackey had requested and received technical assistance from the Fish and Wildlife Service, which also advises on ways to prevent depredation problems by eagles.)

Under the Bald Eagle Protection Act, bald eagles are protected and, except under limited circumstances, their killing, possession, and trade is illegal, with penalties up to one year in jail and a fine of $5,000 for first offenses. (The bald eagle is also protected under the Endangered Species Act and, in addition to hawks and other birds, is protected by the Migratory Bird Treaty Act.)

was kicking extra points. He missed to his right on that conversion try, and had another extra point try blocked.

On the next two series, the Warriors couldn't score touchdowns, so DePew was asked to try a field goal. DePew tied the school record with a 45-yard field goal with 4:56 to go in the first quarter, and he broke the school record with the 54-yard field goal with 1:50 left.

In the last moments of the second quarter, the Warriors moved the ball to the Oiler 21. With fourth down and eight and seconds left, DePew was called on to try another field goal. The snap was bad, but DePew scrambled to his left and passed to tight end Joel Hubert for a touchdown with no time left in the half.

Perry thought that play was the turning point of the game. "We thought we were capable of coming back in the second half until the touchdown. That touchdown really shot us down."

The Steelers talked about play and practice. "We're in such a situation, but Wyrostek admitted it was luck that the pass was completed for the touchdown."

"You talk about those plays a little bit in practice, but when it's actually executed, it's luck. It's like a half-court shot in basketball which you talk about and you think you can make it on a little, but you have to be lucky to make it."

"It was luck to get the pass off," Wyrostek said. "We don't want to use those kinds of plays often, but we have to know what to do if it does happen."

Jim Wyrostek, the coach's son, intercepted a Terry Levan pass with 2:43 left in the third quarter and ran 41 yards for the touchdown. It was his second touchdown with an interception of the season. This time, DePew made the extra point try.

DePew capped the game with a 40-yard field goal with three seconds left in the quarter.

DePew was the Steelers' best weapon defensively as well. All six of his kickoffs landed in the endzone, meaning that Wood River had to start from its own 20 on six series.

North's defense limited the Oilers to 71 yards rushing and 66 yards passing. Levan only completed three of 20 passes.

"We hit them with a good pass rush," Wyrostek said. "We're not very big, but our quickness made up for that."

Perry said, "They beat us off the ball. Their kids wanted the game more than we did, and they got the breaks. This was not a good week for us. We made a lot of mental mistakes."

"We couldn't get anything established on offense, neither one of our quarterbacks (Levan and Mike King) could get us going," Perry said.

"After winning our first two games, some of us thought we were good enough to beat anybody, but this put us back to square one."

Wood River was 0-6 over the past two seasons, but had defeated Civic Memorial (Bethalto) and Breese Mater Dei to open this season. Both North and the Oilers are now 2-1.

Other than DePew's performance, North was held fairly well by the Oilers. The Steelers gained 121 yards rushing and 50 yards passing.

"We're still behind as far as executing. We didn't get our ground game going and we dropped a few passes that we should have had. We had some problems reading their defense. They (Wood River) play a defense similar to Roxana's and at time we were confused," Wyrostek said.

Doug Sheppard of the Steelers led all rushers with 44 yards, and Todd White picked up 22 to lead Wood River.

It was North's second straight shutout. North shutout Collinsville 17-0 the second game of the season.

"When you shut out somebody you're always happy," Wyrostek said.

Green Tree run set

ST. LOUIS — More than 2,000 people are expected to participate in the ninth Annual Kirkwood Green Tree Run.

The Green Tree Run, one of the oldest and largest runs in St. Louis, begins at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 10, with the Kirkwood man. The adult two mile run (16 years and over), the children's two mile and the five mile (all age groups) are run through the streets of Kirkwood, St. Louis. Sugar Creek Valley and Kirkwood Park. More than 50 championship, age group and special trophies will be awarded. All entrants will receive free Omni Sports Stores Green Tree Run T-Shirts.

The record for the five mile run is held by Olympian Craig Virgin with a time of 23:48. The emphasis of the Green Tree Run, however, is on participation and completion. Since no race-day entries will be accepted, runners are encouraged to enter as soon as possible. Entry blanks and more information are available from run's co-sponsors, Omni Sports Stores, on Olive in West County - 587-4122, on Lemay - 587-4122, on South County - 487-3050 and on St. Charles - 291-4399, or the Kirkwood Recreation Department at 111 S. Geyer - 822-5655.

Volleyball meeting

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City Park High School volleyball team is currently accepting team applications into the 1981 volleyball program. The entry fee is $85. Entry fees are currently being accepted at the park office. Closing date for entry fees is Oct. 23 at 3 p.m.

League play will begin the week of Nov. 2. For further information, those interested may contact the park office at 877-3059.

Tourney set

COLLINSVILLE — On Oct. 2 and 3, the Lutheran High Knights will be hosting their own soccer tournament, the 11th Annual Knight Soccer Classic. It will be held on the Collinsville Jaycee fields.

In the first round, the Edwardsville Tigers Junior varsity will play Metro-East Lutheran at 3 p.m. Oct. 2. Following that game at 4:45, the Knights of St. Paul will do battle with the Bethalto (Civic Memorial) Eagles. On Oct. 3, the losers will play each other for consolation honors at 6 p.m. and the winners will meet at 8 p.m. in the championship contest.

Lutheran High has been having a good season so far. Its record is 3-2. Two of its losses have come against Edwardsville (2-1) and Triad (2-1).

Trojans edged

MADISON — The East St. Louis Assumption

Pioneers scored a fourth-quarter touchdown Friday night to nip the Madison/Trojans 10-6 in a Quad County Conference football game.

The loss makes Madison's record 0-2 on the season, while Assumption is now 1-2.

After a 49-yard field goal by Assumption's Eric Ingram, Madison took a 6-3 lead in the first quarter on an eight-yard pass from quarterback Mark Zarr to Tim Peters. The run for a two-point conversion failed.

The two teams played head-to-head the middle two quarters before Assumption's Curtis Gross scored on a 15-yard run. Ingram kicked the extra point for the eventual margin of victory of the Pioneers.

Assumption controlled the ground attack against the Trojans. Madison managed just 87 yards rushing to the endzone, while Assumption's 214. Gross was the main carry with 106 of those yards. Kenneth Briggs gained 44 yards for Madison and teammate Willie Ball had 21.

Zarr was 15 of 26 through the air for 143 yards.

Rev. Lear and delegates attend synod

The Rev. Wilbur L. Lear, rector of St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, and Mrs. John McEford and Mrs. Ronald Blatz, were the official delegates from Granite City at the special synod of the Diocese of Springfield held at St. Paul Cathedral Church in Springfield, during the weekend.

During the session the ninth Bishop of Springfield was nominated and elected. Selected for the special office was the Rev. Donald Maynard Hultsland, currently the rector of Trinity Church in Greeley, Colo.

Father Hultsland, a native of Michigan, is graduate of McAnaster College and of Bexley Hall Theological Seminary in Ohio. He has served churches in Minnesota, Ohio and Missouri, as well as Colorado, and has authored several devotional materials which have been published by the Forward Movement of Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Rev. Leslie Wilson of Belleville nominated Father Hultsland for the office and it is expected he will be consecrated bishop in late February, according to the local minister.

Bishop Hultsland succeeds the former Right Rev. Albert W. Hilestad, who recently retired because of ill health.

Rev. Lear, Mrs. McEford and Mrs. Blatz will also represent the local parish at the 102 Diocesan Synod to be held at St. Paul Cathedral in Alton, on Oct. 9 and 10th. All delegates are elected to the office at the annual meeting of the local parish which convenes in late January.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson observe anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Bob (Rose) Robinson, Rural Route Two, St. Thomas Road, were honored on their 40th wedding anniversary during the weekend at a family dinner party.

The festive event was held in the home of a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Glen (Bobbie) Bailey, 5555 Maryville Road.

They are lifelong residents of the Quad-City area and were married on Sept. 19, 1941, in St. Charles, Mo.

Mr. Robinson has been honored for 23 years at Granite City Steel.

The couple has another daughter, LORRY (Sharon) Yates, who assisted with the affair. They also have four grandchildren, Jon and Jason Yates and Chris and Chad Bailey.

Nameoki Woman's Club hears musical program

A musical presentation by three scholarship winners, sponsored by the Nameoki Woman's Club, provided the program for the first session of the organization held last week at the Nameoki Recreation Center.

Joseph Owens, music director, of South High School, introduced Rene Syler, who played the Franch horn, Dan McCommis on the cornet and JI Hoon Chang playing the clarinet.

After they performed the Minuet by Mozart, each spoke to the group expressing their gratitude for the music scholarship giving them the opportunity to attend the summer camp at Carbondale.

President Ethel Beeler opened the business session and led the group in reciting the club collect and pledge of allegiance. Mrs. Janette Krause offered the prayer.

Mrs. Lisa Fanning read a letter from Jo Higgins, director of the Special Olympics, thanking the club for its $100 donation to the project.

Mrs. Beeler announced the 22nd District meeting of the IFWC will convene on Sept. 30 at Frieden's United Church of Christ in Troy with the Troy Woman's Club serving as hostesses.

She added the next session of the local club is set for Oct. 20 and the guest speaker will be a representative of Oasis.

HEALTH WISE

BY
DR. E. L. STROTTHIDE
CHIROPRACTIC PHYSICIAN

"HOUSEWIFE HEADACHE"

It's true! Women DO have more headaches than men! And, there's a logical reason. Consider that about three-fourths of all headaches involve irritation of the nerves of the neck.

Now consider the typical daily chores of a housewife. As she cooks, washes dishes, cleans windows and light fixtures, etc., she is almost constantly stretching, bending and tilting her head, thus straining the neck and setting up a possible displacement of neck vertebrae. Irritation of neck nerves, causing headache, often follows.

Chiropractic care is aimed at the discovery and correction of nerve irritation that causes headache and other forms of ill health.

Phone our office for an appointment. There is no charge for consultation.

Moose state convention

William Masters, governor of Granite City Moose Lodge 272, with other delegates from the local organization attended the Illinois Moose Association annual state convention held in Peoria, Ill., last weekend.

The event also marked the 50th anniversary of the Illinois Moose Association. During the session Jack E. Hodge of Quincy, the state president for 1980-81, presided, and Virgil Singler, secretary of the Granite City lodge, was appointed to the resolutions committee.

A review of the history of the association was given, which included notes that in 1931 with the country working its way out of the depression years, the Moose organization realized the need for a close knit group.

Therefore, the Moose of Illinois met in concave in Springfield, with the Grand Recorder Katherine Smith, Grand Commander of the Legion of the Moose, Supreme Secretary Malcolm Giles Sr., and Director General James J. Davis, a U.S. senator, attending.

John N. Schultz of Aurora Lodge, was elected the first president of the state group and Orville Hodge of Granite City served as the first secretary.

Each year the number of lodges and the membership of the Loyal Order of Moose and the Women of the Moose has increased, it was announced.

A golden anniversary banquet was held in honor of the event and it was noted the Illinois Moose Association has led the fraternity in membership for 11 consecutive years.

Herbert Helman, director general from Mokena, was the guest speaker. Many past state presidents were accorded honors as was Richard Schneider of East St. Louis, and now a resident of Mokena, who served as state president in 1935-36.

Others attending here were, Millie Votupal, Vernon Johnson, treasurer, and Mrs. Johnson, Walter Anders, junior past governor, and Mrs. Anders, James Tadlock, prelate for District 10, and Mrs. Tadlock, Mr. and Mrs. George Lipscomb, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garcia, Mr. and Mrs. Walden Coy, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Skaggs, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Westbrook.

Ladies Sodality hosts shower

The Ladies Sodality of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, hosted a party shower for the nuns of the school during a monthly meeting conducted by President Pat Loftus.

Among those attending were Sister Margaret Mary, Sister Mary Agnes and Sister Mary Rosella.

New members introduced were Marianne James, Pat McCard, Polly Kraus, Linda Bukovac, Marie Gray, Marsha Chomko and a guest Dora Dunlap from California.

Final plans were made for the adult hayride and it was announced the Holy Name Men's Club will sponsor a fish fry on the first Friday of each month.

Mrs. Ginger Hayes gave a progress report on the forthcoming holiday bazaar set for Nov. 7.

The quilt of the month went to Joan Love and the evening prize went to Sister Mary Agnes and the Madonna was awarded to Agnes Friedel.

Refreshments were served by the fifth grade mothers and the sixth grade mothers will host the next meeting, the president announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daugherty

Daugherty-Black

Miss Susan Kay Black, a daughter of Mrs. LaVerne F. Black, 2740 Sunset Drive, and James M. Black, and Robert E. Daugherty Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Daugherty Sr., 3004 Myrtle Ave., exchanged wedding vows, on June 27 at the Glenview Chapel, Assembly of God Church.

The Rev. M. W. Wilson officiated at the double ring ceremony at 6 p.m.

Nuptial selections included, "The Theme from Love Story," were provided by Susan McGeehe at the piano.

For her wedding, the bride chose a formal ivory gown designed with long tapered lace sleeves set into a molded bodice featuring a high neckline and V-style yoke of matching lace.

Her softly flowing skirt extended into a cathedral length train, edged with a lace flounce.

She wore a lace bordered fingertip veil attached to a lace headband and she held a cascade of white carnations, and blue baby's breath.

A reception was held at the American Legion Hall and the rehearsal dinner was hosted at Collinsville Holiday Inn.

After a wedding trip to Branson, Mo., the couple is now residing in Pontoon Beach. Both are graduates of South High School. The bride is employed as manager of Elaine Powers in Northridge, Mo., and her husband works at Reilly Tar and Chemical Co.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Kathy Byrd served with bridesmaids, Miss Pat Black, a sister of the bride, Mrs. Terry Daniel, Mrs. Diane Curtis and Miss Cindy Anderson.

They were gownned in pastel blue and A-line style dresses, fashioned with draped skirts. Each carried a bouquet of small blue carnations.

Krista Jean Wakeford was the flower girl and Mike Garney and a Kenny Wakeford, served as ringbearers.

She wore a blue frock similar to the adult attendant.

A reception was held at the American Legion Hall and the rehearsal dinner was hosted at Collinsville Holiday Inn.

After a wedding trip to Branson, Mo., the couple is now residing in Pontoon Beach. Both are graduates of South High School. The bride is employed as manager of Elaine Powers in Northridge, Mo., and her husband works at Reilly Tar and Chemical Co.

Jr. Service plans events

Plans for various projects and programs was the main topic of discussion of the Granite City Junior Service Club at a monthly meeting held at the Nameold United Methodist Church, last week.

President Brenda Weekman presided and gave a review of summer activities which included an adult night at Paddlers, taking crayons to the local hospital, and a garage sale which netted $140.

The current fund-raising project which is a traveling apron is designed to be taken to a member with a gift and the recipient is to make a handmade article or baked item to be forwarded to the next person. Each one is to donate the cost of her gift and at the conclusion of the year the money will be used for welfare programs.

A joint project with the Collinsville and Madison Junior Service Clubs will feature a large item contributed by the group to be auctioned with the proceeds to be donated to Hospice. The event will be held on Oct. 15 at the Granite City Township Hall.

The 50th anniversary of the organization will be held at the Nameold United Methodist Church on Oct. 25 from 2 to 4 p.m. All past and present members are invited to attend.

Another program of the club will be its annual Breakfast With Santa scheduled for Dec. 9 at 9 a.m. in the Township Hall. Tickets costing $1.75 are available from any member. Prizes, food, entertainment and pictures with Santa will be featured.

The president announced workshops are continuing to prepare favors for the holiday affair. She also noted the club purchased eye glasses for two area children.

The homemade article was won by Gail Miosky. Hostesses, Pam Reed, Sue Niese and Wilma Eddington, served refreshments to those named and to Linda Badger, Joyce Curran, Linda Gordon, Jo Ella Harris, Faith Holsinger, Flora Mae Lensing, Donna McBride, Kathy Mitchell, Karen Niebur, Betty Nighoghean, Donna Palovic, Sara Repp, Donna Sprankle, Joan Wachter, Paula Weaver, Peggy Willard. Guests included Becky Serlich, Julie Patton and Debbie McMillan.

The September board meeting was hosted by Mrs. Miosky.

Madison Baptists to hear evangelist

Dr. Bob Randall of Wichita, Kan., will be leading the revival at First Baptist Church, Fifth and Baptist streets in Madison, beginning Monday, Oct. 15, and continuing through Sunday, Oct. 11, the host pastor announces.

Services will be held at 7:30 each evening and a nursery will be provided.

Dr. Randall, originally from Arkansas, was ordained into the ministry at the age of 20. He has served as an evangelist in many countries of the world including a crusade associate with the Billy Graham team in the 1958 Caribbean Crusade.

He holds the B.A., B.D., M.Div., Doctor of Laws degrees from Baylor University, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Jackson College and two honorary degrees.

The guest speaker is also an accomplished pianist and often accompanies the song service in his crusades. He also entertains by playing his musical crystal glasses.

Dr. Randall was a delegate to the Jerusalem Conference on Biblical Prophecy in 1971, and the World Evangelization Congress in Switzerland in 1974. His overseas ministry maintains many with missionaries around the world, and has helped to organize nine churches in France.

He has served as pastor of the Trinity Baptist Church in Wichita for 14 years, and has had parishes in Arkansas and Texas. Dr. Randall is president of Agape Communications, Inc., co-owner of Wichita's Christian Radio Station, KSGL.

Skating party for Troop 359

Junior Girl Scout troop 359, from Emerson School, attended a skating party at Stoppok's Roller Rink, as one of the first social activities of the troop, this season.

Refreshments and the admission fee for each one was provided from the troop funds and the group was given special recognition with a short period of skating time for the troop members only.

Those attending were Stacie Hewish, Christy Clark, Lou Manninger, Marlene Hill, Tanya Albertson, Trina May, Carolyn Schellman, Michele Ward and Mrs. Alberta Manninger, leader.

Golden Agers visit Red Bud

Members of the Golden Agers Senior Citizens Club boarded a bus last week at the Kingspark and Anchorage recreation centers for a one-day trip to Kaskaskia State Park, near Red Bud, Ill.

Forty-four took part in the excursion which replaced the club's monthly potluck dinner.

Dinner was served at Mr. D's Restaurant in Red Bud prior to the group returning to Granite City.

And all born together by a common idea. That gift, one time each year, helps thousands of people, in your community, all year round.

Thanks to you, it works.

Hope Lutheran Fall Festival

Hope Lutheran Church, 3715 Wabash Ave., will hold its 8th annual Fall Festival on Sunday, Oct. 4, featuring a barbecue dinner, games and entertainment.

Dinners including pork steaks and grilled chicken will be served from 3 to 6 p.m. with games for all ages scheduled at 2 p.m.

The activities represent the congregations annual church picnic with special events planned for the Sunday School children. A fish pond, cartoons, cake walks, merry-go-around and other programs in the afternoon.

Tickets will be available at the door costings $3 for adults, $1.75 for child's portion and 75 cents for a combination plate of hot dogs, chips and drink. Choices include slaw, baked beans, potato salad, drink and dessert.

A full size homemade quilt, a baby size quilt and pillowcases will also be awarded during the day long affair.

Entertainment will be a program of gospel music by "The Davids" of Hoyleton, Ill., to begin at 6:00 p.m.

Members of the steering committee in charge of the programs are Jim Choiat, Roy Massey, and Jeff Underwood.

A mission theme will be observed with a special liturgy, and program provided by the Lutheran Women's Missionary League at both the 8 and 10:30 a.m. services, according to the host pastor, the Rev. David Fielding. He added, the Sunday School teachers will supervise a special mission activity entitled, "Seed the Word" during the school hour, starting at 9 a.m.

Mr. Mrs. Hendricks to mark anniversary

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hendricks, 470 First St., Wood River, will host a reception and dance in observance of the couple's 25th wedding anniversary.

The social event will be held at the Knights of Columbus in Wood River on Oct. 18 from 4 to 9 p.m.

Mr. Hendricks retired from Granite City Steel this year after 30 years service.

Mr. Hendricks and his wife, the former Melba Jones, were married on Sept. 8, 1956, at St. Mary's Church in Brussels, Ill., with the Rev. Joseph Enright officiating.

They are the parents of seven children, Barbara, Brenda, Brent, Beverly, Brian, Beth and Brad.

Another charter member not present for the picture was Paris Depigian. Miss Aghlavi Arslanian of New York, director of Christian Education of the Eastern Prelacy of the Armenian Apostolic Church, conducted both seminars and presented lectures to delegates from Racine, Wis., Waukegan and Chicago. Rev. Khoren Habeshian, host pastor, also addressed the assembly.

Navy Mothers gain life member

Mrs. Edna Miller is a new life member of the Quad-City Navy Mothers Unit 850, it was announced at a meeting of the local group on Thursday night at the VFW Hall. The designation of "life member" is determined by the Navy Mothers' national organization based on several prerequisites, including an individual's membership for 10 consecutive years, active participation and attendance records.

Mrs. Norma Darnell of the local unit also is a life member.

Commander Elizabeth Ramsey presided at the business session and the group voted a $25 donation to the Epilepsy Foundation.

A luncheon was served by Mary Lee Bader and Maxine Thebaud, who awarded the mystery package to Mrs. Darnell and other prizes to Hazel Jones, Jean Teller, Bert Ethington and Stella Miller.

The group will next meet Oct. 8 at the VFW Hall.

St. Ann's Society plans programs

The monthly meeting of St. Ann's Society, of St. Mary's Church, Madison, was held last week in the school cafeteria.

Chaplain Ann Loftus, opened the meeting with prayers.

President Vada Krajnovich, presided. Thirteen members were present. Eva Barry, Ann Brennan, Mary Ann Bunk, Mary Gotzian, Elsie Kmetz, Ann Kowalczyk, Ann Kwiatkowski, Mary Lahey, Ann Loftus, Helen Papp, Vera Sikora, and Frances Zabotka.

Mary-Lahey accepted the request of the President, Vada Krajnovich, to serve on the term of Adele Miller, who was the secretary for 1981, before her death in August.

The secretary report and the treasurer report were read and stood approved. Hostesses for the September meeting were Vera Sikora and Mary Ann Bunk. The president reported that the annual Christmas Bazaar would be held in November, at the Engelbert

Hall, the date to be announced later. Also, she reported that the annual Quilt Bingo will be held in March, 1982 at Engelbert Hall. The members were asked to bring the things for the Christmas bazaar to be brought to the October meeting.

Father Melchior spoke briefly about the school situation. He asked the members to bring suggestions to him or to the pastor Fr. Frank Kordek. Lunch was served and games was played. The white elephant was won by Ann Brennan.

COMPLETES NAVAL RECRUIT TRAINING

Navy Seaman Apprentice, October E. Smith, daughter of Darrel O. and Norma J. Smith of Route One, Box 1348H, Granite City, has completed eight-week recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Orlando, Fla.

A 1979 graduate of Granite City High School South, she joined the Navy in May 1981.

Methodist women view playlet

A playlet entitled, "The Membership Court of The United Methodist Women" was presented by Helen Bichoff and Virginia Carroll, at a meeting of the United Methodist Women of the Nameold Methodist Church, held last week at the church.

Others participating in the presentation were Alta Stewart, Corrine Dawson, Dorothy Luckert, Dorothy Wallace and Norma Rains. Mrs. Dawson, president, opened the gathering with prayer and presided over the business session.

Mrs. Norma Jean Warner served as the leader of a retreat for the UMW held at Our Lady of the Snows, earlier this month, and gave a review of the event.

A poem entitled, "Detachment" and written by Mrs. Warner was read by Norma Rains, followed by a lesson for the Least Coin on "Hospitality to Strangers," given by Mrs. Carroll.

Mrs. Dorothy Wallace selected a slate of officers for elections. Those to serve for the forthcoming year include, Mrs. Dawson, president, Dorothy Luckert, vice-president, Mrs. Bichoff, treasurer, Luan Brierley, secretary.

Also mission coordinators, Mrs. Rains, Christian Personhood, Mrs. Wallace, Christian Social Involvement, Ruth Hancock, Christian global concerns, Marie Isenberg, Ruth Hancock and Mrs. Rains, nominating committee, and Alta Stewart, membership.

The president announced the 1981 wide bazaar will be held at the church on Oct. 24 and is open to the public. Refreshments were served to those named and to Alma Jean Cowan, Mildred Hess, and Mary Bailey.

Shrine past officers meet

The past officers of Gabriel Shrine 78, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, met during the weekend in the Colonial Room of Bill Burn's Cafeteria.

Hostess Mrs. Mary Ann DeHart called on Delbert McKissick to give the invocation, and after dinner a business discussion was held.

Games were played and prizes were awarded to Earl French, Delbert McKissick, Mrs. Karmyn Edmonds, Mrs. Ann Mueller, and Charles McCollum. Others attending were John DeHart, Mrs. Effie Johnson, Mrs. Charles McCollum, Mrs. McKissick, Mrs. Florence Spohr, Mr. and Mrs. Oco Woods, Mrs. Mary Billrey and Mrs. Earl French.

Guests included Mrs. Dorothy Edwards, Jerome Pragaetz, Martha Pragaetz, Mrs. Guyle Stuart of Gabriel 78 and guest Joseph Pisel. The next meeting will be the Christmas party, it was noted.

It may not surprise you to learn that the United Way is the country's largest community service effort. But, did you know that almost all of the money raised by your local United Way works right there in your own community?

It's true. On the average, 89% of it goes directly for services. And, the people who decide how the money is best spent are all from your community, too.

That's because the United Way is actually more than 2100 local organizations. Each concerned with providing the particular human services needed in its own area.

'Non-attainment' approach stunts job growth here and elsewhere

To the Editor:

The Clean Air Act has, in many instances, actually stalled and sidetracked our drive toward cleaning up the air.

Hard to believe? Just consider a few of many case studies which have been compiled by the Business Roundtable:

1. A company in the Midwest which presently burns natural gas and oil wanted to construct a new boiler which would burn wood-waste instead.

The result would be cheaper fuel costs and reduced emissions of pollutants.

However, the statutes of the Clean Air Act would require studies and permits taking at least 2½ years at a cost of over $500,000 before construction could even begin.

But the law would allow quick reactivation of an existing coal boiler which would emit six times the pollutants as the new boiler.

2. Rather than add on emission control equipment to its existing furnace, an iron foundry in the Southeast proposed building a new furnace which would operate more efficiently and generate fewer pollutants than the first alternative.

But the Environmental Protection Agency said no because the foundry is located in what has been designated a "non-attainment area."

Which does not meet EPA's standards for one or more pollutants.

In 243 "non-attainment areas" around the country, including the Granite City area, there are special restrictions on new construction.

This company had no choice but to follow the first course, resulting in more pollution and less efficiency.

3. A major oil refinery planned to replace several 40-year old units with ones which would burn less fuel and burn it more cleanly.

Once again, because the facilities are located in another of the "non-attainment areas," subject to EPA's construction ban, the project was not allowed.

The company's appeals to the agency have been met with confusion, red tape and years of delay.

In addition to generating fewer pollutants, the project could be providing the city and county with $7 million in additional tax revenues, not to mention 1,200 construction jobs and 50 permanent jobs for the area.

This list of horrors goes on and on. And yet, making changes in the Clean Air Act will be one of the most politically sensitive and controversial issues Congress will face.

Why? Because in recent years a broad consensus has emerged that it is necessary and desirable to devote considerable resources to the task of cleaning up and maintaining our air—and the business community wholeheartedly agrees.

After all, we breathe, too. The problem is: How do we do it without sacrificing other equally critical goals, such as our economic prosperity and independence from foreign oil?

Back in 1970, the federal government's answer was the Clean Air Act. These 2,500 pages of statutes and regulations are so wrought with confusion, contradiction and complexity that even the EPA officials themselves often get lost in the maze.

The result: Delays and cancellations of vital industrial and energy projects.

lower productivity, higher prices, fewer jobs and, ironically, delays in cleaning up the air.

Nonetheless, along with a new awareness by business that the air must be protected, the Clean Air Act has resulted in some improvement in the air quality.

This is why the U.S. Chamber of Commerce strongly supports the continuation of the Clean Air Act.

Yet, it is vitally important to the economic future of our country that Congress address the confusion and contradictions in the Act and make changes where necessary.

The standards we have set for a healthy environment must never be compromised, but the business community must be allowed greater flexibility to meet those standards in the most cost-effective manner possible.

Despite the hue and cry raised by some environmental extremists, it is the business community of the Granite City area, at the same time, sincerely believe that the act has not worked.

It has stunted our economic growth, delayed our freedom from foreign oil, and damaged our competitiveness overseas.

The business community, proud of its long track record of solving problems, believes that we can make the important goals of clean air, good health and good business compatible with each other.

If Congress joins us in looking for solutions instead of listening to slogans, we will meet these goals.

Need automatic crash protection

To the Editor:

Because of improvements in auto safety, tens of thousands of Americans are alive today. Tens of thousands more are not maimed or crippled.

Important features that we take for granted—safety glass, seat belts, and stronger tires for example—are big lifesavers.

The consumer interest in safety, I think, is shown by the broad acceptance of such features. What motorist would consider leaving a car without safety glass? The answer: virtually none, because consumers are excellent judges of their own interests.

Although lives have been saved, an appalling number of lives are being lost. Auto accidents are the leading cause of death among Americans in the age of 35.

In 1980, more than 33,000 men, women and children died in auto accidents; more than 2,000,000 others suffered disabling injury.

Each year, more Americans die on the roads than were killed in Vietnam. The yearly highway toll is nearly double the loss of life to homicide.

Missouri is a major automobile producing state. I have pressed hard for measures to strengthen the auto industry. I believe strongly in the industry's future.

I am certain the industry can succeed in the massive job of retooling and modernization—Chrysler's recent completion of its $75 million renovation of its Fenton plant proves the job can be done.

I am equally confident that the industry can meet the requirements of a strong commitment to auto safety. Our increasing dependency on small autos means a significant rise in death and injury—unless the U.S. Department of Transportation proceeds with the existing standard for improved crash protection.

Already, the new rule has been delayed a year. To modify the timing of the new rule—which would require automatic crash protection, in the form of self-fastening seat belts or air cushions that inflate instantly upon impact—might be acceptable. To drop the standard entirely is absolutely unacceptable.

The basic argument against the new safety standard is that it would take resources away from modernization. At the very most, another one-year rollback in the standard would save $50 million. But the industry must invest up to $70 billion by 1985 in new plant and equipment.

The cost of the safety devices is a drop in the bucket, coming at a time when smaller cars will raise the risks of death and injury.

The fact of the matter is, that crash protection works. An exhaustive study by Leon Robertson of Yale University found that crash protection requirements already in force saved 37,000 lives between 1975 and 1978. The new standard could prevent at least 5,000 deaths annually.

As chairman of the Senate's Surface Transportation Subcommittee, I have consistently opposed weakening the new safety standard.

Congress must be prepared to act if the U.S. Department of Transportation moves to weaken the public's protection.

The safety of life and limb, in my view, should not be an option, like body styling, which is a basic commitment of national policy.

We know how to save lives and prevent injuries. The job can be done, and done at an affordable cost. It is the duty of Congress to see that the job keeps getting done.

U.S. SENATOR JACK DANFORTH

Concerned about Madison taxes

To the Editor:

It was with great interest that I read the mayor's letter in the Sept. 27 issue. It is good to know he wants everyone to take an active interest in the Madison city government.

He scheduled the public meeting with regard to the shopping center one evening and the following evening the Council approved, named, dedicated the center, and approved the contract for the building. He was so anxious for our opinion, he gave 24 hours to the public.

Some half-truths are going around. The city administration stated that the Madison tax would be reduced by 40 percent with the utility tax.

The rate for 1980 was $2.046. The rate for 1981 is $1.48, a reduction of only 27 percent.

The shopping center is going to be a big thing for the city, but the rent mentioned isn't even going to cover the annualized cost of the center.

The city will pay the property taxes to the schools and the other tax bodies. Residents' property taxes have been pledged as security for the next 20 years on the shopping center, and if the project defaults, residents' taxes will go to pay for that default.

But who, meanwhile, is going to pay for fire and police protection and trash removal, etc.? The people are either with a higher utility tax—home rule might permit raising it—or other taxes imposed.

Regardless, it will come from the people's pockets. Improvements are fine, but we would like to know who pays for them, and how much it costs.

The Council is continually working on record as continuing the pensions of the police, etc., in the event that home rule passes. It is also thoughtful of them to make sure the pension is of the Council's members continued.

What else will home rule negate that they may not be as considerate about?

The mayor has been silent to this point, and he needs to be reminded that Jeffersonism can be constructive.

The utility tax is on every household, every business, and therefore interests everyone, not just a few.

What's more, we are all interested in the time that it also reminded each month every time a bill comes in with the tax. There will be no forgetting this time before election time.

Urges help for UW

To the Editor:

People joining together to help each other—neighbor to neighbor, friend to friend—is a unique American tradition.

Today, we are being called upon to honor and continue that tradition during these times of double digit inflation, proposed cutbacks in federal social programs and increasing prices for basic necessities. It is reassuring to know that United Ways and their agencies, whose strength comes from America's tradition of volunteerism, are available to aid us through these difficult days.

I know that in order for United Ways to continue their important work, our membership must also continue their support. I am proud to endorse the United Way campaign and am confident that you will help make it a success.

South band has new look and new sound

To the Editor:

We would like to thank the public for their support at the 1981 Labor Day parade.

We consider it an honor and a privilege to represent Granite City in this gala event.

We would also like to thank the public for their support in the 1981 Shrine parade. We were not able to join the festivities, but we thank you for missing us.

We also thank Coach McKeethan and the Warrior basketball team for having us come out and perform with them.

This year, the Granite City High School South band will present a new look for Granite City with new uniforms, and also a new sound.

This year's selections are: Stike Up the Band, Dixie Country Jamboree, Birdland and If You Believe.

Also, this year we will once again represent Granite City at the 1981 Washington marching contest that is held in Washington, Mo., on Saturday, Oct. 3.

Last year, we were the only Illinois band to compete at this contest.

We would like to invite the public to come out and see our new look. Thank you again for your support.

Fears home rule could be costly

To the Editor:

As a citizen of Madison, I believe it is time for me to speak my thoughts on home rule.

I cannot see how home rule can help us in any way. Sure, it will help us to get the new mail and cable TV. But in the long run, we could end up paying for cable TV in two ways.

First, with our monthly rate and, secondly, when people do not subscribe, then a tax might be put upon all of us to pay for cable TV, whether we want it or not.

Who is going to pay for our mail? The rent from the businesses will not come near paying for the construction of it.

So, I guess we could again be taxed to pay for it. We are paying a utility tax at the highest rate allowed. But if home rule passes, could the utility tax be raised everytime a pet project is started in the City of Madison?

If the city is hurting for money, why should we create a cable TV company and have to pay someone to run it?

My wife and I both work. We both bring home a paycheck. What wonder is how are the senior citizens and people on a fixed income going to handle these extra taxes when they come?

The day will come when the elderly will have to decide whether to pay extra taxes or to buy food.

It sounds to me that if we get home rule, we will be getting unlimited power to control the city.

JIM CAFFEY
Madison concerned citizen

Government workers should earn their pay or leave public payroll

To the Editor:

Budgets and taxes seem to have occupied the minds of most people in the Tri-City area this past spring and summer.

We also had some great shows when politicians began to point their fingers at one another in an effort to confuse the general public as to who really was the person or persons to blame.

Then, a silver-tongued lawyer tried to brainwash people about taxes and the cause of escalated assessments.

When I returned home, I wondered if I had been brainwashed or been subjected to a real estate broker trying to escalate the value of property so that he and others would get a better price or percentage from sales of property.

The budgets of the taxing bodies are the real cause of escalated assessments. The inflated budgets are caused by the estimated expense each taxing body turns in.

Therefore, the root of higher taxes is the taxing bodies. The school districts turn in the largest bill. I believe our people deserve the best education possible, but it could be possible that there are too many teachers.

In days gone by, a teacher had the capability of teaching all subjects for a given school grade, which had seven or eight subjects. Today's children trudge from one classroom and teacher to another.

Maybe if we got back to basics a better product could be turned out at graduation time. It is a shame that many cannot write as good as they should.

Now that computers are around, if lost, the ability to figure is lost.

After all, it's what's in the head that counts.

We have had the current methods around for a long time, and have accepted them as a way of life, but changes and reductions in operating expenses are in order.

One taxing district found a lawyer on the payroll who had done nothing to earn his pay for the past nine months. They have five lawyers when two or maybe one could handle all their legal matters.

They also found surplus help in another area. If people don't want to work, you can always find someone to take a bite from the apple.

A time study of all help in the taxing bodies might reveal where a lot of tax money is being spent.

If the elected person in charge of some offices and work forces had to pay their own salaries from their own pocket, there would be changes made fast. But as it is, it's paid from easy-money, easy-go tax money and they don't care.

Some of these people have several jobs. They are double and even triple dippers.

I know of one who has a job and his wife does his work; she may be on the payroll. I do not know, but it's an example.

If these jobs are too small to keep a full time employee, then the County Board should combine them and have one to supervise.

Tax money used to be easy come, easy go. But now, people have had it. They are raising up against the double and triple dippers, the politically-created jobs for friends, the needless spending, and the giving of contracts without asking for bids that would save tax dollars a bit from the apple.

If the County Board district assessors, and supervisors can't clean up their own messes, for the people instead of against them, in-between election time—not just for them at election time, then they should be out of a job after the next election.

If legislation cannot be enacted because of a lack of guts to stand up against lobbyists, then the people will cause needed legislation to be enacted by vote.

All can come out on top from school superintendents to levee districts, if we get the dormant grey matter to working and see that tax dollars are not wasted on non-working people who think because it's a county job or political job that they don't have to work.

Let's stop double dipping and triple dipping by combining agencies. We then could wind up with some happy taxpayers instead of having them on the warpath about mean being elected again.

UNHAPPY VOTER

Big raise for worker

To the Editor:

Only Paul Schuler, the Granite City mayor, and someone equally disinterested in the progress of the city could possibly submit such a bill.

How so? Manpower helpers are only paid the minimum wage. So the City Council hires an ex-Manpower girl and pays her $909 a month or $5.50 per hour. The theory of both Manpower and the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act was to train people on the job and then have that employer absorb them—but no one said at a 57 percent increase.

Herb & Doris musical coming to Quad-Cities

Herb Sadler, a resident of Venice whose musical talent has earned him the name of "Mr. Guitar," is bringing his show, the "Herb and Doris Revue," back home to Madison.

Sadler is a Madison High School graduate. The show will be held in Englebert Hall, 10th and Washington streets, Madison, on Saturday, Oct. 31.

Herb and Doris have had several records in the top 40 such as "Soul Guitar," "Somebody, Somebody Needs You," and others. Their show is billed for the entire family and listed as total entertainment so everyone can dance, listen and sing to the Herb and Doris Revue.

The nine-piece group has toured Europe and the United States with Ike and Tina Turner.

Ray Charles' description of the revue was "Outta Sight." Sadler has performed with Charles on several occasions.

He has also performed with such well known groups as the Supremes, James Brown, Bobby Darin, and Joe Tex.

While in this area Sadler became known with his own group as Herb Sadler and His Emperors of Rhythm Orchestra. They played in this area from 1961-64 and then went on a 10-month series of tours with Ike and Tina Turner.

He appeared in a full length movie "N.T.T. Award Show" honoring performers who received international awards for pop and rock music in 1965.

Heb then signed with Paramount Motion Pictures as a staff guitarist and left Paramount to become lead guitarist for Ray Charles.

After a few months with Charles, he returned to Venice for a three-week rest and then went on an European tour with the Rolling Stones and Ike and Tina Turner, where the show set new attendance records in England.

Appearing with the TV and recording artists will be "Sherwood," an Elvis impersonator who was one of the final contenders for the role of the late Elvis Presley in the movie "King of Rock 'N' Roll."

RETURNING HOME. Herb Sadler, right, Venice and his partner Doris, will be coming back to Madison to present a family-type show, the "Herb & Doris Revue." The variety musical show will be at Englebert Hall, 10th and Washington streets, Madison, beginning at 8 p.m. Herb and Doris were formerly with Ike and Tina Turner, and Ray Charles.

The entertainer lives in Creve Coeur, and has appeared on television in the Variety Club Telethon and has played with Tammy Wynette, first lady of country music. Advance tickets are being sold at Brenda's Trojan Restaurant in Madison, and the Venice Park Grill for $6 each.

The program is being produced by Tom Voloski and Delane Productions.

'Bye Bye Birdie' homecoming play

The Granite City High School South Homecoming play is "Bye Bye Birdie." The play will be presented Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 7 and 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the South auditorium and will be followed each evening with the presentation of the Homecoming Queen and her court.

Tickets are $3 for adults and $2 for students.

"Bye Bye Birdie" is one of the most captivating musical shows of our time. It tells the story of a rock and roll singer who is about to be inducted into the Army.

The play is directed by Ron Pennell. Bev Scroggins is the technical director, Mary Ann Bright, vocal director and Margaret Pennell, choreographer. Some of the main cast members are Bill Petrovich who plays Conrad Birdie, Mike Moore as Albert Peterson, Cheryl Thomason as Rose Alvarez, and Marsha Fisher as Ursula Merkle.

Dynette Shrader as Kim Macafee, Ann Corbit as Mrs. Macafee, and John Rutledge

as Mr. Macafee. Karen Abrams as Mae Peterson, Mark Smith as the mayor, Mandy Wood as the mayor's wife, Randy Dunn as Hugo Peabody, and Donald Fisher as Randolph Macafee. Karen Moore as Mrs. Merkle, and Kim Evans as Gloria Rasaputin.

There are also 48 other cast members playing teenagers and Shriners. Pennell said the students are doing an excellent job and rehearsals are going fine. "These kids are really working hard. We have been having three to four hour rehearsals every night and weekends. Their dedication and spirit are simply fantastic."

"It has been extra hard on everyone with only three weeks to get ready; but I will say without any reservation, those who attend will see a fine performance," Pennell said.

Persons wishing tickets may purchase them in advance from Pennell or Mrs. Scroggins in Room 143.

Fewer young pupils in the GC district

The 9,919 enrollment in Granite City Schools includes 3,026 at 15 elementary buildings and 4,894 at two high schools and three junior high schools.

A breakdown by grades shows 718 in kindergarten, 655 in the first grade, 698 second, 657 third, 665 fourth, 741 fifth and in the sixth grade and 610 in elementary special education classes. There are 722 in the seventh grade, 740 in the eighth grade, 828 freshmen, 913 sophomores, 824 juniors, 748 seniors and 310 secondary-level special education students.

The bigger numbers in the upper grades reflect a previous era in which there were about 1,000 pupils in many of the age groups.

These large classes are now progressing upward and out of the school system, replaced by smaller numbers in the younger groups due to population trends and a lower birthrate.

Granite City High School South has 1,957 students, GCIS North 1,442, Coolidge Junior High School 807, Grigsby Junior High 457 and Prather Junior High 431.

Grade school enrollment figures are: Logan 559, Nameoki 439, Johnson 433, Lake 419, Wilson 418, Niedringhaus 381, Barryville 369, Frohardt 361, Marshall 358, Mitchell 352, Parkway 313, Webster 312 and Emerson 311.

GC Scout Scout returns from western event

Cheryl Swift, an eighth-grader at Coolidge Junior High, returned recently from her Wild Opportunity trip to Girl Scout National Center West, a 5,000-acre site bordered by the Big Horn National Forest near Ten Sleep, Wyo. Her event, "Caddis on Horseback," was a national event for 40 girls, ages 13-15.

Flying to Denver on her own for her very first plane trip was quite an experience for Cheryl. At Denver she was gathered with approximately 36 other Scouts while National Center West representatives made arrangements for a special charter flight to Worland, Wyo. Their originally scheduled flight to Worland had been canceled at the last minute because "the air controller's sick."

Girl Scouts from across the United States were selected to participate in this 2-week event, which gave the scouts a chance to "ride the range." Cheryl's group made several day trips on their horses. On one such trip they explored the Pow Wow Archeological Site where they saw the ruins of an ancient city. On another, they spent cave exploring in the Sinks and went into several "ice caves." On a trip they also went wading in an ice-cold river that ran underground.

In addition to the day trips the girls also learned the responsibilities of horse care. Cheryl spent much time cleaning pack tack in preparation for their 3-day trip to Oregon Gulch. Riding across sagebrush flats, over rocky trails, a thorough lunch canyon is just all the work seen more worthwhile, she said.

SOPRANO TO PERFORM Lyric soprano Edythe Pierce Berry will be the featured guest artist for the opening event of the 1981-82 chamber music series at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, Oct. 10, performing at 8:15 p.m. in the Lovejoy Library auditorium. An associate professor of music at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, Miss Berry was a winner in the fifth annual oratorio solo competition at the Carnegie Recital Hall in New York City.

Legislation rewards safe auto drivers

Secretary of State Jim Edgar, Thursday praised the signing of legislation permitting his office to exempt drivers without traffic convictions for a period of at least three years from taking the written examination when their licenses are renewed.

The legislation (House Bill 808), sponsored by state Representative Clarence Darrow, was signed by Gov. Thompson, Thursday and goes into effect July 1, 1982.

"This new law rewards those persons who have demonstrated an ability to drive safely. Good drivers should be rewarded and their efforts recognized," Edgar said.

"The law should also serve as an incentive to others to practice safe driving habits. We should do everything we can to encourage traffic safety, and this law is an excellent example of how we can encourage Illinois motorists to drive safely."

Edgar said approximately 21 percent of the 1.3 million persons whose licenses are renewed annually would qualify for the exemption. All Illinois drivers are required to renew their driver licenses every three years and all are presently required to take written and vision tests once every nine years.

The new law does not affect those persons age 69 and over, who are required to take all three examinations each time their licenses are renewed.

Labor to interview school candidates

The Legislative Committee of the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council will conduct interviews of candidates seeking election in the Nov. 3 school elections, E.F. Reiske, president of the council, said Tuesday. Reiske said the committee will meet Oct. 3 at 9 a.m. in the Labor Temple to hear any candidate who wishes to be heard. The interviews will be conducted on a first-come, first-served basis, Reiske said.

The committee is anxious to hear views of all candidates in the Granite City, Madison, Venice and Belleville Area College districts, he said.

The committee then will submit a report to the trades and labor council which will make endorsements for the school posts open to election.

State law encourages use of Illinois coal

Governor James R. Thompson has signed legislation that requires state energy agencies to give special consideration to projects encouraging the use of Illinois coal.
"This bill will help Illinois find new ways to make Illinois coal more attractive to industry. Illinois coal usage is an important component of our state's economy, with increased use more jobs are produced and everyone benefits from the economic results," the Governor said.
House Bill 1591 provides that the Institute of Natural Resources and the Illinois Energy Resources Commission shall give special consideration to projects which are designed to remove sulfur and other pollutants in the preparation of Illinois coal.

Special consideration also is to be given in the use and operation of electric utility steam generating plants and industrial facilities which use Illinois coal as their primary source of fuel.
The bill also expands the definition of alternative energy and adds "demonstration" to research and development to describe which projects are eligible for funding under the Energy Development Bond Act.
The measure was sponsored by Representative Doug Kane, Springfield, and Senator Vince Demuzio, Cahville.

Thompson also signed other bills, including:
House Bill 823, which requires that all accounts opened at financial institutions after January 1, 1981 have the date the account was opened printed on checks, drafts and orders of withdrawal. Also, new personal checking accounts would start with the number 101 and be numbered consecutively thereafter under the bill.
Thompson said both provisions are designed to deter the writing of bad checks. He said studies indicate that accounts that have been recently opened are more apt to be involved in fraudulent check practices.

At 9:45 a.m. on the petition of Wanda Bennett, Owner of Record, and Pauline E. Saucy, Occupant of Mobile Home, requesting a Special Use Permit as per Article II Section 205 Subsection 205.10 of the Madison County Zoning Ordinance, 1975, in order to place a mobile home on this property for at least five years. This is located in an R-4 Single Family Residence District in Nameoki Township.
Place 16 in State Park

The hearing will be held at the above described site.

CREWS LIQUOR IT'S STILL QUICKER!
FUBRIGHT GRANT. DEADLINE IS NEAR
Only a few days remain in which students at SIUE can apply for graduate study abroad during the 1982-83 academic year under the Fubright Grant Program. Deadline for applications on the campus is Oct. 12, according to Floyd Coleman, assistant dean of the Graduate School.
About 500 awards are available for study in 50 countries. Most of the grants provide round-trip transportation, tuition, and maintenance, for one academic year. A few provide international travel only or a stipend intended as a partial grant-in-aid.
Applicants must be citizens of this country, should hold a bachelor's degree or its equivalent, and should be proficient in the language of the host country.

Temporary checks would be exempt from the bill's effect.
The measure was sponsored by Representative C. L. McCormick, Vienna, and Senator Ted R. Olsen, Chicago.
House Bill 249, which states that a court will determine the "street value" of the controlled substances for a person charged with a drug-related offense. Any fine imposed would be deposited in an earmarked "Drug Traffic Prevention Fund" with that money to be used for enforcing drug laws and to defray expenses associated with returning drug law violators to Illinois.
The bill also requires that the "street value" be considered when bail is set.
The measure was sponsored by Representative Harry Youell, Oak Lawn, and Senator Arthur Berman, Chicago.

Senate Bill 224 and House Bill 525, which deregulate some small day-care facilities while strengthening the Department of Children and Family Services' enforcement powers over large homes and centers.
The bills include provisions that deregulate homes with less than four children or caring for less than nine children in a family home, but also would establish a business offense penalty of $500 to $10,000 for each day a facility operates without a license.

Back from fishing patrol in Alaska

Coast Guard Radarman 3rd Class Philip W. Macias, whose wife, Judy, is the daughter of William and Judy Bain of Mitchell, has returned from an Alaskan fisheries patrol.

He is a crew member aboard the Coast Guard cutter Boutwell, homeported in Seattle.

During the two-month patrol, the cutter participated in the rescue of two crewmen for a Japanese fishing trawler. They were injured in an engine room explosion in the Bering Sea.

The 378-foot long Boutwell also conducted routine inspections of foreign fishing vessels to enforce compliance with the U.S. 200-mile fishing conservation zone.

Macias joined the Coast Guard in July 1979.

Hospital fuel use seminar

Illinois Power Company will conduct a hospital energy management seminar Wednesday in Decatur.

The administrators and engineers of hospitals in 38 communities served by the company have been invited to the seminar, according to W. Dean Cunningham, Illinois Power manager of energy programs.

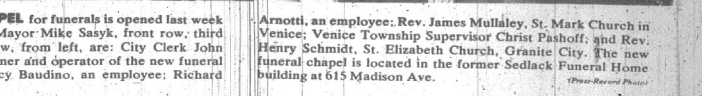

The seminar at the Holiday Inn will focus on methods to improve energy efficiency in hospital operations, including the laundry and the air handling and air conditioning system, two major energy consumers in hospitals, Cunningham said.

"The importance of an energy management program will be illustrated by case history reports on two hospitals where major improvements were made in energy efficiency. Those hospitals are St. Mary's in Centralia and Brokaw in Normal," he said.

"Illinois Power has performed walk-through energy audits at 48 hospitals, including St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City. The results of the audits have been analyzed, and energy use patterns from the hospitals will be discussed at the meeting.

"Systems to help in energy management will be discussed by an equipment supplier.
